Lilliput & Felix (lilliputandfelix.com) – UK

Nostalgic, feminine, structured...

The label name draws inspiration from the fictional island of the novel Gulliver's Travels and from chic globetrotters who feel at home on any beach of the globe. Lilliput & Felix is the result of the passion for swimwear of Catriona Ramsay who created the London-based brand in early 2015. The bikinis and swimsuits are made using beautiful fabrics and have clean shapes that enhance and flatter the female forms emphasizing their femininity. The debut collection is inspired by the wild florals and geometric structure of English Country Gardens with a touch of nostalgia. Textured prints and elegant block colours in pastel or coral tones confer a sense of fun to each piece conceived for voyagers and confident dreamers from all latitudes.
