Lilliput & Felix Swimwear

Beach babes, bookmark this swimwear brand, stat. Treat yourself and you'll be among the first to showcase Lilliput & Felix's gorgeous collection of luxe swimwear.

We heart the Paeonia Bikini, which like the full range has a built-in structure and comes with wide, adjustable ribbon straps to support your bust and hone your curves. The wrap-effect cleverly highlights the narrowest point of your waist, and for those days when you're not feeling entirely body-confident, the ties can be loosened and wrapped lower to control and cover.

If you're more of a one-piece girl, Lilliput & Felix' Liliium swimsuit is one of the prettiest we've seen and the coral snapdragon print is made all the more desirable by the gold metal sliders which again can be adjusted to fit your bust size. But it's the plunging back with bow detail that's the real showstopper – never will you look as good sunbathing on your front or perched at the pool bar..
