Yaama,

We welcome you to Native Secrets!

Established in 2009, Native Secrets is a proudly 100% Indigenous-owned company that is deeply rooted in our cultural heritage and aims to share Australia's Indigenous culture and our native secrets with all Australians. We are focused on reigniting old conversations and preserve generational knowledge passed down from one generation to another.

Our small dedicated team is lead by owners:

Phil Thompson
(a Bidjarra Kurra Kurra man)

Cherie Thompson

Our core values underpin everything we do

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Respect | Love our land, the people and culture |
| Relationships | Nurture and maintain respectful relationships with Elders, community and customers |
| Remember | Where we have come from and all who have helped us |
| Responsibility | To yourself, each other and mother earth |

Our group comprises the three entities:

Secret Harvest: deals with all aspects related to the land. This includes land management activities such as biodiversity offset management and land rehabilitation. We also use the products harvested from the land to manufacture essential oils and natural products. Secret Harvest draws upon traditional land management practices and aims to restore and protect ecosystems while promoting sustainable and regenerative land use practices. We employ green energy in all our manufacturing processes as we want to leave a positive environmental footprint. We have also partnered with a number of research organisations to investigate and validate the medical properties of our traditional bush medicine plants using modern scientific methodologies.

Native Secrets Cosmetics: deals with aspects relating to our bodies. Native Secrets Cosmetics utilises traditional bush tucker and bush medicine plants, harvested and manufactured by Native Secrets. From these raw materials, we have designed and manufactured a beautiful range of natural skin care, cosmetics and toiletries which have the added therapeutic and health benefits of traditional medicines.

Secret Business: deals with the heart and mind. Secret Business is dedicated to community engagement and consulting services, bringing Indigenous communities and corporate Australia together. We offer services ranging from cultural immersion experiences and cultural training, to community liaison programs to assist corporates working with local Indigenous communities on a win-win basis to get projects delivered, and to fulfil Indigenous procurement obligations. As part of this process we act to guide, support and mentor Indigenous businesses to deliver on these projects, fostering economic empowerment and Indigenous employment.

Some of our clients include:

- Qantas
- AGSM
- Western Plains Zoo
- Squadron Energy

By supporting us, you contribute to the economic development of Indigenous communities, the preservation of cultural heritage, and the promotion of inclusive and responsible business models across Australia.
