Table of Contents – Full Score

1) Two Partitas

Girolamo Frescobaldi

Page 5

Girolamo Frescobaldi (1583-1643) was one of the most important composers of keyboard music in the late Renaissance and early Baroque periods. His music influenced, among others, Johann Sebastian Bach and Henry Purcell. During this era, the partita (a variation) was a piece for a single instrument.

2) Dimmi Dove Sei

Barbara Strozzi

Page 13

Dimmi Dove Sei (Tell Me Where You Are) was written by Barbara Strozzi, a renowned and Prolific composer in 1651, a time when women composers were not encouraged to exhibit their talents. The text speaks of a longing for a loved one and the pain that accompanies that absence. This arrangement captures the depth of feeling described in the text.

3) Sarabande

Arcangelo Corelli

Page 17

Arcangelo Corelli (1653-1713) was one of the most important composers of the Baroque period. His music was significant to the development of musical forms such as the sonata and concerto. As music moved away from modality, Corelli used the new major and minor tonal system. The Sarabande is from his Sonata for Violin in E minor, Op. 5 No. 8.

4) Fantasia

Georg Philip Telemann

Page 22

Georg Philip Telemann (1681-1767) wrote thirty-six Fantasias for solo keyboard that were published in 1723-33. His Fantasias are important because in them we see the beginning of sonata form. Telemann was one of the most important and prolific composers of his era, writing over 3,000 works, many of which were lost.

5) March & Minuet

Johann Sebastian Bach

Page 31

The March, (sometimes attributed to CPE Bach) and the Minuet are from a collection of compositions known as "Notebook for Anna Magdalena Bach" by Johann Sebastian Bach. (1685-1750). The March, in a major key, has a cheerful character with its recurring syncopation. Coupled with the March is the somber Minuet, in a minor key. The Minuet was a slow and courtly dance.

6) Andantino

Franz Joseph Haydn

Page 40

Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-180) was one of the most prolific composers and was influential to the development of the Classical style during the 18th century. His music helped establish the forms and styles of string quartet and symphony. The “Andantino” is from his 12 Easy Pieces for Piano.

7) Adagio (from Divertimento, K439B) W.A. Mozart

Page 46

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791) was one of history’s greatest composers. Considered a child prodigy, he wrote many works during his short life. This Adagio, the slow movement from his Divertimento, K 429b No. 4, was originally written for three instruments. Divertimento means “entertainment” in Italian.

8) Minuet & Trio

Franz Schubert

Page 50

Written in 1813, Minuet and Trio (No.9) is part of thirty minuets and trios composed by Franz Schubert (1797-1828). Minuet and Trio form consists of two minuets, where the second minuet became known as the Trio because it was played by only three instruments after which, the first minuet was repeated.

9) Two Beethoven Selections Ludwig von Beethoven

Page 56

Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827) is one of the most admired and influential composers in the history of music. He wrote the German Dances (1795) for a masked ball. Not included in this arrangement is the Trio, which was followed by a repetition of the dance. Written in 1824, Bagatelle is a short piece of light music and in this case, originally written for piano. Beethoven often expressed a mood or idea in his bagatelles.

10) I Stood in my Dark Dreams Clara Schumann

Page 67

Clara Schumann (1819-1896) wrote I Stood in my Dark Dreams as part of a collection of six songs. A very Romantic work, the song was dedicated to her husband and was a reaction to being away from him. It should be played with great feeling and sensitivity.

About Journeys in Style (Volume 1 & 2):

Playing chamber music is one of the most demanding yet rewarding activities for musicians. Young musicians should be encouraged to participate in playing chamber music as soon as they are able.

Journeys in Style (Volume 1 & 2) is written for young players, and the anthology contains twenty arrangements of music both recognized and obscure.

Organized chronologically, the anthology reflects the rich history of music spanning the seventeenth to the twentieth centuries. Journeys in Style represents a varied palette of music from early partitas of Frescobaldi (1583-1643) to miniatures of Bartok (1881-1945). It contains beloved pieces from well-known composers as well as a Rag of Scott Joplin (1868-1917). It also provides music from women composers such as Barbara Strozzi (1619-1677), and Teresa Carreño (1853-1917) both highly esteemed musicians in their day, but pretty much unknown today. Florence Price (1887-1953), who has, in recent years become much more represented in concert programs, is also included. For historical context, each arrangement includes a short descriptor as well as the date of composition. It is hoped that Journeys in Style will help fill the gap of much-needed chamber music for young string players.

About the Arranger:

Pasquale Tassone studied at the Giuseppe Verdi Conservatory in Milan, has an honors diploma from the Chigiana Academy in Siena, Italy and a Ph.D. from Brandeis University. His teachers have included Franco Donatoni, Giacomo Manzoni and Sandro Gorli in Italy and John Clement Adams, Martin Boykan and Harold Shapero in the United States. He has written music for the University of Lowell recital series, the M.I.T. Band and ALEA III. In 1995 he was commissioned by the Massachusetts Instrumental Conductors Association (MICA) to write a chamber piece that was premiered at the Massachusetts All State Music Convention in March of 1996. Also in 1995, his Piccolo Preludio for solo piano was published in the League-ISCMPiano Book. His music is published by E.C. Schirmer, Kendor Music, Grand Mesa Strings Publications, Fenwick Parva Press and RCEditions. He was first a prize-winner, with his Laudate Dominum, in Catholic University's composition contest in celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Benjamin T. Rome School of Music (1999). Laudate Dominum was premiered at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington DC in April 2000. In October 2003, he was a resident at the Atlantic Center for the Arts, where he worked with the composer, Olly Wilson. In June 2004, some of Tassone's choral music was performed at the Artama Choral Festival in the Czech Republic. A CD featuring Ricardo Odriozola and Einar Røttingen performing his Trittico for Violin & Piano, among other works was released in March 2011. In January 2013, Tassone was named a Finalist, 2012 EAMA Prize. His Dzon (Concerto for Marimba and Strings) was performed in November 2015 by the AGBU London Chamber Orchestra, and the full orchestra version was premiered by the Reading Symphony Orchestra in December 2018. He has recently finished work on his first opera, Seven Rabbits on a Pole. In January 2018, his Wings of Light for String Quartet was chosen by the Italian Center for Rare Diseases in Rome as an artistic contribution in the fight against rare diseases. String Editor: J. Cameron Law

J. Cameron Law is an award-winning educator, cellist, composer, and conductor. He brings 30 years of public-school string teaching experience to Grand Mesa Strings, as well as significant work at the university level. He holds degrees in Cello Performance from Colorado State University and the University of Michigan and has had an extensive career as both a symphonic and chamber musician. In 2021 Mr. Law was inducted into the Colorado Music Educators Association Hall of Fame.

Editor's Note:

Orchestral bowings and fingerings can be highly subjective and personal. The choices a string editor makes are designed to be pedagogically appropriate for specific grade levels while facilitating student musicality and honoring composer intent. The editorial additions in the following composition will provide guidance “right out of the box” for the non-string player and suggest some options for the advanced string specialist. Enjoy!
