1 cup Lupin flour
1/4 cup oil, melted butter or melted bacon fat
1/4 cup warm water
1/4 tsp salt
garlic powder or other seasonings to taste (optional - 1/2 tsp baking powder - not really needed)

Mix lupin flour, salt, (baking powder if you choose) seasonings together with 1/4 cup oil mash with fork until a crumbly dough forms
Add warm water and mix together ..should be firm... form a ball and roll thin - until you can almost see through the dough, between two pieces of parchment paper (Helps to grease the top layer) Cut dough to desired shape before placing in oven. I find a pizza cutter works well.

Bake at 350 Deg F. for 8 to 15 minutes depending on how thin the dough is, until golden.
