FINE ART

Betsy Havens - Betsy's love of the human figure in painting has led her to subject matter of the street scene, the café, markets, fishermen, dancers, historical figures and portraits of contemporary Americans. Betsy's travels throughout the world give her great inspiration for her paintings of the people, the land and architecture. She paints her own interpretation of medieval and renaissance knights of Europe, domes of Byzantium, and landscapes of Tuscany and Southern France.

Betsy began her studies at age 12 at the Telfair Museum of Art in Savannah, Georgia and studied art throughout her school career. Educated at the University of Georgia and the University of South Carolina, she earned a Bachelor of Arts in Design and did post graduate work in the History of Architecture and Southern Literature. She has received many awards for her work of which is collected widely by private and corporate collectors.
