FINE ART

Ignat Ignatov - (b. 1978) grew up in Sevlievo, Bulgaria. At age thirteen, his promising talent in drawing, painting, and sculpting gained him one of only thirty positions to the renowned School of Arts in Tryavna, Bulgaria. In the 5 years there, he established the foundation of his academic art training. Following graduation in 1996, Ignatov was accepted into the University of Arts in Veliko Tarnovo, Bulgaria where he studied under the atelier approach to fine art. In 1997, using proceeds from the sale of his art, Ignatov financed his move to the United States and became a US citizen. He continued his studies at the California Art Institute and in 2005 he began teaching painting classes at the Los Angeles Academy of Figurative Art. In 2019, Ignatov moved to Charleston, South Carolina where he finds inspiration in the historic architecture as well as the picturesque marsh and beach landscape.

Ignatov has won numerous awards and has had his work featured in nearly every major art publication throughout his career.
