Brand.

TYGERIANLACE is a trans-seasonal brand launched by Tygerian Lace Burke following the birth of her second child in 2014. With a passion for high-end fashion, Tygerian is inspired by the artistry of timeless design while advancing innovations and the environmental aspects of design. Every collection pushes the envelope for a ready-to-wear, ready-to-work wardrobe.

Inspiration.

TYGERIANLACE was conceptualized in 2014. The foundation was built following a conversation between Tygerian, her mother, and her grandmother. The beauty and success sparked by that one moment of love and empowerment are a perfect metaphor for our entire brand. This empowerment and beauty are seen in our collections of polished staple pieces. Visit www.tygerianlace.net to book your design consultation today!

EDITORIAL EDIT 2024

Tygerian Lace Burke is the Founder and Creative Director behind TYGERIANLACE. Born in Washington, DC, Tygerian developed an early interest in fashion design. She would prance in her mother's high heels and fancy dresses. She observed the impact firsthand that well-made clothes had on a woman's attitude.

After graduating with her Master's Degree and pursuing a career in Corporate America with the support of her husband, Christopher Burke, and two children, Skyler and Mason Burke, Tygerian began her professional career as a women's wear designer in the Fall of 2014. She set out with the intention to build a brand of garments that were of quality, bold and timeless.

Since 2014 some of TYGERIANLACE's clientele include; Miss Rockville 2023, Miss Rockville 2022, Britney Carter (Branding Guru), Carla Truitt (Owner of Eight Royale), Macie Mincey (Entrepreneur and Owner of KT Winery, Mom Juice, and Only Moms Podcast) Mayor Jennifer Roberts (Charlotte, NC), Erica Bryant (Channel 9 News), Felicia Gray (Philanthropist and Community Activist), Dee Dixon (Editor in Chief of Pride Magazine), Jennifer Michelle Tatum (Everyday Runway) and Tempestt Harris (Owner of Level 21 magazine). The collections of Tygerian Lace have premiered in Charlotte Fashion Week (2015, 2016), North Carolina Style Week (2016), District of Columbia Swim Week (2017), Baltimore Fashion Week (2016), The Face Magazine (2017) and sponsored various nonprofit events.

Tygerian concludes the year, debuting with DC Fashion Week, Philly Fashion Week, and Behind the Face along with a launch in November 2023 Tygerian of her first commercial designer collection with fashion retailer Shein. The collection will be composed of pieces inspired by the holiday season.
