

DOG BROKEN ANKLE

Mark's dog broke the ankle of its rear left leg. There was a bone protruding and extensive skin loss and muscle damage. The initial vet visit put the bone together via pin and wire attached to a bolt. The Biopton light was used on the damaged area daily with bandage changes. The vet was surprised how quickly the wounds healed and there was no infection at all.

By Mirjana Arlov
Specializes in Biopton use on animals