

DOG TUMOUR

A dog with internal and external tumours given a vet's prognosis of 6 months expected life - alive and very well 8 months later! With some of the external tumours that were present being unchanged and some being smaller or absent. He occasionally develops abdominal discomfort we believe but Biopton Light Therapy soon settles this.

Briar Doevendans