KNEE INJURY BEFORE GAME

A polo player was kicked on the side of his knee just before he was due to play in a game. I used the purple light over the area for about 10 minutes. When he stood up, he stomped a bit, waved his leg about and said he couldn't feel any pain. He was able to play that day and for the rest of the week.

Heidi Dobbie Bioptron Therapist Works on a polo farm

