The design firm's 1,500-square-foot showroom is located on Roswell Road and offers a variety of furniture brands, from SUNPAN and Nuevo to Uttermost Revelation and Elk Home, to name a few. It will also offer design services, including furniture restoration. "Now my clients have a space to consult, review samples, converse ideas and map out a plan for their home," says Hidden Gem owner and interior remodeler Kourtney Ashley. "After we remodel their space, they will now have a place to shop their interior decor."
