

Designers Today

Great Lakes-based interior designers address city and country life

Andrea Lillo////September 11, 2023

We featured the Great Lakes region in our September issue and designers shared details behind a few of their projects.

For the primary bedroom, the client “wanted a luxury hotel suite feel,” he said. Miller designed the custom walnut and croc embossed velvet bed, which features a 6’1” tall headboard. The room also features a champagne metallic foil wallpaper, Currey & Company chandelier, SunPan bench and custom bedding and drapery from Wildcat Territory. Photo: Jacob Lukas Design