

SUNPAN Appoints Matthew Baker to Spearhead Operations at New Texas Warehouse

Furniture World News Desk on 11/16/2023

SUNPAN has announced the appointment of Matthew Baker as the Operations and Warehouse Manager for its new 200,000 square foot facility in Baytown, Texas. Baker brings over twenty years of management experience from his tenure with leading American companies to SUNPAN, with the aim of enhancing the company's expansion in the United States.

Sundeep Bagga, President and CEO of SUNPAN, expressed confidence in the new appointment, "We are thrilled to welcome Matt to SUNPAN. His positive attitude, dedication, and strong skillset will be monumental in better serving our customers across the United States."

Baker's immediate responsibilities will include managing daily operations at the Houston facility to ensure the efficient and smooth fulfillment of U.S. orders. The facility's launch is scheduled for the coming weeks.

Carl Lovett, SUNPAN's Vice President of Sales, commented on the strategic advantages of the new facility, "Matt's involvement in this new operation will change the way we do business tremendously. Having a warehouse local to many of our customers will transform how they shop and engage with SUNPAN."

The Houston warehouse is part of SUNPAN's ongoing growth strategy in the United States, aiming to improve customer service with more in-stock inventory, faster shipping, and local pickup options for American customers.

Further details about the Houston expansion will be released later in the year.
