Upholstery and case goods resource Sunpan is once again providing furnishings for ET Canada's interview suite at this year's Toronto International Film Festival.

ET Canada's celebrity interview suite will be located on the outdoor patio of the Five-star Shangri-La Toronto hotel. Film stars will be seated on Sunpan's furniture during their interview segments with the award-winning entertainment news program.

The festival continues through Sept. 18.

"It is an honor to have our company be chosen as the exclusive furniture provider to one of Canada's most famous entertainment programs," said Sundeep Bagga, president and CEO of Sunpan "This partnership marks our fifth consecutive year working with ET Canada, and we are proud to have the opportunity to showcase our beautiful furnishings to millions of Canadian and international viewers during this event.”

The set includes curated pieces from the Outdoor by Sunpan collection, a line of furnishings designed for indoor and outdoor settings made with innovative and sustainable elements.

“We are thrilled to be partnering with Sunpan again after five amazing years working together,” stated ET Canada Executive Producer John Kampilis.

“Sunpan’s brand new line of sustainable outdoor furniture provides the perfect backdrop for our TIFF interview suite.”
