The Music Streaming Player

Product EANs: 5060332107292 (UK) - 5060332107292 (EU)

Uniti Atom is a compact music-streaming player that helps you hear more from your favourite music and radio stations. Built-to-last in Britain, it combines beautiful design with stunning performance and all the streaming features you need. It can even boost your TV sound, too.

Key Features

- Stream all your favourite radio stations and music from Spotify, Apple Music, Tidal and Qobuz
- Transform your TV sound – simply connect via HDMI
- Easy playback from all your devices via Apple AirPlay 2, Chromecast built-in and top-quality Bluetooth
- Superlative build quality and beautiful design; made in the UK and built to last
- Works seamlessly with a range of other Naim streaming products, including Mu-so systems. Choose the same song in beat-perfect sync or play different music in different rooms.
- Voice control via Google Assistant and Apple Siri
