

I Wonder

I'm sitting here on my chair
Listening to the silence
Not sad or in despair
Lost love to contemplate
I'm just too tired to wait
And I wonder
Why I met you too late

I see you everyday
With your hopes and dreams
But we ain't as one anyway
I'm sure it's not my fate
I'm not getting irate
But I wonder
Why I met you too late

You drive me wild
Give me your all
Help me to see
There is something there that you and I are missing

Why can't we be together?
It just doesn't make sense
Are we just friends or more?
I can't live like this forever
And if you think the same
Give me a sign

We've walked under blue skies
And in the moonlight
Another year goes by
I like being with you
But I just don't have a clue
And I wonder
(Could) our love ever be true

You, Wild, Your All
You, Wild, Give me all your love
Why-why, Why-why, Why-why, Why-why-why
