

Eyes Full Of Tears

V:1.

This wound is in my heart since its taken place
Tell me why, why did you leave me
I search for you in vain I search too long long time
Was it wise let them tell you, tell you lies and you just disappeared

Ref:

And my eyes full of tears
Cause your love's not mine
I Never thought I could hurt you
Cause I love you so true
And my eyes full of tears
Cause I know I failed
But I still wanna feel you right by me

V:2.

I was faithful to your love
I tried to treat you the best as I could
But I must carry a load in my heart now
It hurts so bad. Please give me one more chance talk to you and tell all the truth

Ref:

And my eyes full of tears
Cause your love's not mine
I never thought I could hurt you
Cause I love you so true
And my eyes full of tears
Cause I know I failed
But I still wanna feel you right by me

Bridge:

Maybe I tried to save something what's over now
And maybe lonely nights I've cried I spent wrong?
But I still wish I could change what happened to our love
Cause I just wanna be with you baby

Ref:

And my eyes full of tears
Cause your love's not mine
I never thought I could hurt you
Cause I love you so true
And my eyes full of tears
Cause I know I failed
But I still wanna feel you right by me

I'll never never hurt you baby
Cause I love you, I need you
I still wanna be with you baby
I am so sorry
I'm sorry
