

Installation Instruction for Round LED Aluminum Channels

Note: Before installing the LED strip, ensure to create a hole at the back of the channel to facilitate the passage of the power feed.

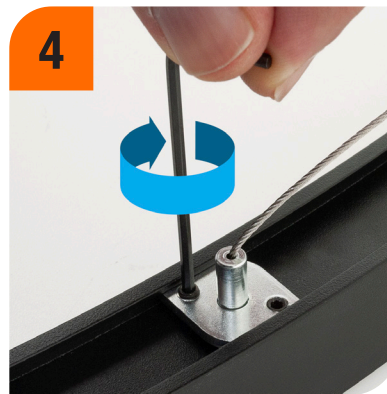

- Insert the suspension cable into the designated cable holder.

- Insert the cable holder at the back of the channel.

- Rotate it 90 degrees in any direction.

- Secure the Cable holder to the channel using the provided screws.

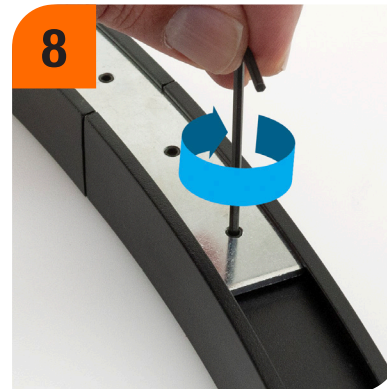

- Insert half of the joiner into the rear of the channel.

- Secure the joiner with the provided screws.

- Insert the other half of the joiner into the other part of the channel.

- Secure the joiner with the provided screws.