

John Joubert (b. 1927)

St Mark Passion, Missa Wellensis & Locus iste

Peter Auty Narrator – tenor Benjamin Bevan Jesus – baritone Richard May cello David Bednall organ Christopher Sheldrake Judas – baritone

Craig Bissex Pilate – baritone lain MacLeod-Jones Centurion – tenor

Wells Cathedral Choir Matthew Owens conductor

About Wells Cathedral Choir & Matthew Owens:

'The Choir of Wells Cathedral [... is] one of England's best-kept secrets [...] an album full of unexpected delights.' Classic FM

> 'Seamlessly blended by choirmaster Matthew Owens, who has cultivated a bright, gleaming sonority' BBC Music Magazine

| iviissa vveilelisis, Op. 174 (2013) | |
|---|---------|
| 1. Kyrie | [4:21] |
| 2. Gloria | [4:22] |
| 3. Sanctus | [3:10] |
| 4. Benedictus | [2:29] |
| 5. Agnus Dei | [3:40] |
| 6. Locus iste , Op. 175 (2013) | [4:10] |
| St Mark Passion , Op. 180 (2015) | |
| 7. At the House of Simon the Leper | [7:53] |
| 8. The Upper Room | [10:47] |
| 9. Gethsemane | [10:43] |
| 10. The Praetorium | [8:56] |
| 11. Golgotha | [9:19] |
| Total playing time | [69:56] |
| | |
| World premiere recordings | |
| | |

Mainer MA-II---- O. 174 (2012)

John Joubert (Photography: Graham Boulton)

John Joubert: Choral Works for Wells Cathedral

With his total of opus numbers rapidly approaching the 200 mark, John Joubert's creative output covers all musical formats, ranging from opera to instrumental solos. A constant thread throughout his seventyplus years of composing has been the English choral tradition, with which he first became acquainted as a schoolboy in South Africa.

Joubert was born in Cape Town on 20 March 1927 into a family of Huguenot and Dutch descent, and was educated at the Diocesan College in Rondebosch. The director of music there was Claude Brown, a former assistant to Sir Ivor Atkins at Worcester Cathedral, and therefore in direct contact with Sir Edward Elgar. John once told me how proud he was of this link he had with the great composer.

During his late teens John Joubert had something of a creative crisis, juggling aspirations to become either a painter or a composer. Composition lessons with W.H. Bell, who had taught at London's Royal Academy of Music (RAM) until emigrating to South Africa in 1912, helped decide him, and he won a Performing Rights Society scholarship for himself to study at the RAM. Joubert made the journey to London in 1946. His composition teachers included Theodore Holland, Howard Ferguson, and Alan Bush, and the move to London opened up a whole glittering world of opera- and concert-going to him, hearing performances from the world's greatest artistes.

In 1950 he was appointed to the University of Hull (living in an apartment which was later taken over by the university's librarian Philip Larkin – Joubert grumbles ironically that the blue plaque now commemorating the poet makes no acknowledgement of himself), where he remained as lecturer until 1962, when he moved to the University of Birmingham, with its prestigious music department under the professorship of the legendary Anthony Lewis.

Over the years, he moved from Lecturer to Senior Lecturer, and eventually to Reader in Music. A brief sabbatical in 1979 saw him spending time as visiting professor at the University of Otago in New Zealand.

John Joubert took early retirement from the University of Birmingham in 1987, since when, a little tuition at Birmingham Conservatoire and some private coaching aside, he has been able to devote himself entirely to composition. Much choral music has resulted – including the oratorio Wings of Faith (premiered by Ex Cathedra during These new recordings therefore preserve the nationwide 'Joubertiade' celebrating for all time the rewarding results of this his 80th birthday in 2007), the Rochester relationship between a veteran composer. triptych Blest Glorious Man, and An English Wells Cathedral Choir, and indeed the Requiem, a counterpart to the Brahms voungsters at the Cathedral School. German Requiem, premiered with a libretto by Nicholas Fisher at the Gloucester Three All three works performed here reveal Choirs Festival in 2010. In addition, Joubert characteristics which have always been saw the completion and triumphant features of Joubert's choral style: an premiere and recording of his lifetime inevitability of rhythmic underlay in his labour of love, the opera Jane Eyre. word-setting, with music virtually bouncing off the text: and an expressive use of A new stimulus since the completion of tonality, texture, and tessitura, gradually Jane Eyre has been Joubert's involvement creating tension and eventually bringing with Wells Cathedral in Somerset. He led about an emotional release which just a masterclass in composition at Wells seems so 'right'.

Cathedral School in June 2013, delivering observations, and he had two new works, some pithy but always constructive the Missa Wellensis. Op. 174 and the motet Locus iste, Op. 175 premiered in the Cathedral on 16 June that year, as where he was composer-in-residence.

Joubert's relationship with Wells came to a climax on Palm Sunday 2016, his Matthew Owens gave the premiere of setting. The work was given a repeat vear.

performance on Palm Sunday the next 89th birthday, when the Choir of

Wells Cathedral under its director part of the festival new music wells for Wells Cathedral Choir, this 'Short Mass' (it has no 'Credo') is resourcefully written for unaccompanied SATB chorus, the various parts often divided. The 'Kyrie', as so often in Joubert's settings of the text, makes an urgent, appeal, here

Commissioned by Cathedral Commissions

Missa Wellensis, Op. 174

in block chords in the key of B-flat minor. There is a shift to F major for 'Christe eleison', solo soprano moving gradually his St Mark Passion, Op. 180 in a liturgical into modal territories, before a sturdy return to 'Kyrie'.

even brighter F-sharp major. The opening lines are repeated between soprano and alto (in fourths) and tenor and bass, and SATB soloists contribute to 'Domine Deus'.

The 'Gloria' begins in the warm, confident key of A major, modulating swiftly to the

One of the endearing, listener-friendly aspects of John Joubert's compositional style is the use of memorable, easilyidentifiable motifs, such as the little descending scale which we hear for 'Domine Fili unigenite' (itself a subconscious reminiscence of 'Oui propter nos homines' in the 'Credo' of in 1962).

Joubert's Missa Beati Ioannis, composed

The returning word 'Gloria' underpins 'Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris', and exultant word-repetitions build to a triumphant 'in Gloria Dei Patris' before all the excitement subsides into a pianissimo F-sharp major 'Amen'.

The 'Sanctus' returns us to the bleak, B-flat minor key-signature with which the Mass had opened, the sombre, dense textures here far removed from what one would expect in a paean of praise. Joubert moves to the relative major (D-flat) for a 'pleni sunt coeli' florid in triplet movement.

fugal and sequential, moving towards a

Various warm-sounding keys are explored blazing 'Osanna'.

in the 'Benedictus', with the chorus sustaining chords under solos in succession for soprano, alto, tenor, and bass. The 'Osanna' this time is surprisingly subdued, ending on a C-sharp major chord. Often something which creates an airborne lightness to his conclusions. Quietly reflective, the 'Agnus Dei' is in the long-prepared key of B-flat major, with a serenely rocking, almost lullaby-like 'dona nobis pacem' bringing the Mass to a calm, Joubert's final chords are in second inversion.

settled ending. Locus iste, Op. 175

Another commission from Cathedral Commissions for Wells Cathedral Choir, text lines from the Gradual of the Mass for the Dedication of a Church this unaccompanied motet takes as its dense. Melodic lines ascending from the Joubert's setting opens with a G-based tonality fluctuating between minor and major. Voices are divided, the texture is depths are answered in descending inversions, all of this giving structural cohesion as the lines gradually rise. This composer's expressive use of tonality, texture and tessitura before it at last comes to an end on a comforting, quietly solid G major chord.

miniature is a fine example of the

St Mark Passion, Op. 180

There are many aspects to this work which put it firmly in the line of descent from the two great Passions (St Matthew and St John) by Johann Sebastian Bach: the demanding role for solo tenor as the Narrator (Evangelist in Bach's settings), and the involvement both of the Chorus as representatives of the common people, and the congregation itself, joining in the singing of appropriate hymns selected here from The English Hymnal. As Joubert's

St Mark was premiered in a liturgical appropriate.

context, this last requirement is especially

Another, more subliminal link is Joubert's busy part for a solo cello to underpin the Narrator's narratives, reminding us that the cello is an important continuo partner in the recitatives of Bach's Passions. It was only a few years before the composition of the St Mark Passion that Jouhert composed his Cello Concerto, premiered in Shrewsbury by Raphael Wallfisch and the Northern Chamber Orchestra in 2012.

and memories of the work's eloquence inform the restless cello writing here, with angry tremolandi, resonant pizzicato chords, and singing reflections and part for organ, supporting the SATB choir. and the five soloists: in addition to the Narrator there are Jesus, Judas and Pilate (all baritones), and the Centurion (tenor).

The Passion begins 'At the House of Simon

the Leper', with the anointing of Christ's

In addition to the cello there is an important commentaries.

feet to the indignation of his pennywise entourage. The choral hymn which ends the section, subtly introduced by the organ, is 'Vexilla Regis', and cannot help but remind the listener of Gustav Holst's The Hymn of lesus the chorus desperately muttering 'Is it I?'. much in the manner of the calls of 'Peter Grimes!' in that opera by Joubert's beloved Benjamin Britten. We get another scent of that composer in troubled organ writing which recalls Britten's Reioice in the Lamb. That aside, listen for the wonderful enharmonic release at 'Kingdom of God'. 'Gethsemane', the third movement, is an

We move directly into 'The Upper Room', extended narrative scena for soloists, cello and organ, the chorus only eventually entering with 'Drop, drop, slow tears'.

Jesus is taken to 'The Praetorium' for questioning by Pilate, and here the chorus is vicious (just as in Bach's turbae) in its lust for the destruction of a man they had adored only a few days earlier. And we end here with the Passion Chorale, 'O sacred

The final scene is Golgotha, and after Jesus' death the cello returns to the music of the Passion's very beginning, before the growing triumph in a confident D major of all of us singing 'When I survey the wondrous cross'.

head', again a link with both Bach Passions.

Cathedral Commissions

© 2017 Christopher Morley

Missa Wellensis, Locus iste, and St Mark Passion were all commissioned by Cathedral Commissions of Wells Cathedral, The scheme. founded in 2006, has commissioned new works by some of the UK's finest composers: Michael Berkeley, Judith Bingham, Jonathan Dove, Gabriel Jackson, John Joubert, Sir

James MacMillan, Sir Peter Maxwell Davies,

Tarik O'Regan, Howard Skempton, Sir John

Tavener, and Judith Weir, among others.

receive special benefits as a commissioner? For further details please contact: administrator@cathedralcommissions.co.uk or visit www.cathedralcommisions.co.uk

Why not join this exciting project and

This recording was made possible through a major donation from an anonymous benefactor and the generosity of the following donors:

Bronze Patrons Prebendary Helen Ball OBE and Mr Jain Ball

Mr Sean and Mrs Sarah Donoghue, and Orla Mrs Merida Drysdale Dame Elizabeth Gass Prebendary Adrian l'Anson Mr Simon and Mrs Alice McVeigh Mr Christopher Morley Ms Joanna Robertson

Silver Patrons

Mr Gary Davison The Reverend Canon Rob and Mrs Anna Morris Mr John Owens

Gold Patrons

The Darragh Family Charitable Trust Mr Philip and Mrs Caroline Dukes Mr John Joubert Mr Peter and Dr Jenny Kingston Mr Cameron Marshall

| Texts & Translations | Tu solus Altissimus, Jesu Christe. | | | |
|---|--|--|--|--|
| | Cum Sancto Spiritu in gloria Dei Patris. Amen. | | | |
| Missa Wellensis, Op. 174 | | | | |
| | Glory to God in the highest, | | | |
| 1. Kyrie | and on earth peace to men of good will. | | | |
| Kyrie eleison, | We praise You, | | | |
| Christe eleison, | We bless You, | | | |
| Kyrie eleison. | We adore You, | | | |
| • | We glorify You, | | | |
| Lord have mercy, | We give thanks to You | | | |
| Christ have mercy, | For your great glory, | | | |
| Lord have mercy. | Lord God, Heavenly King, | | | |
| • | God the Almighty Father. | | | |
| | Lord Jesus Christ, only-begotten Son, | | | |
| 2. Gloria | Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, | | | |
| Gloria in excelsis Deo. | You take away the sins of the world, | | | |
| Et in terra pax hominibus | have mercy on us. | | | |
| bonae voluntatis. | You take away the sins of the world, | | | |
| Laudamus te. | hear our prayer. | | | |
| Benedicimus te. | You sit at the right hand of the Father, | | | |
| Adoramus te. | have mercy on us. | | | |
| Glorificamus te. | For You alone are holy, | | | |
| Gratias agimus tibi | You alone are the Lord, | | | |
| propter magnam gloriam tuam. | You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, | | | |
| Domine Deus, | With the Holy Spirit | | | |
| Rex caelestis, | in the glory of God the Father. Amen. | | | |
| Deus Pater omnipotens. | | | | |
| Domine Fili unigenite, | | | | |
| Jesu Christe. | | | | |
| Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris, | | | | |
| Qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. | | | | |
| Qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe | | | | |
| deprecationem nostram. | | | | |
| Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis. | | | | |
| | | | | |
| Quoniam tu solus Sanctus. | | | | |

Osanna in excelsis. Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest. 4. Benedictus Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Osanna in excelsis. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. 5. Agnus Dei Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem. Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

3. Sanctus

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dominus Deus Sabaoth.

Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua.

6. Locus iste, Op. 175 Locus iste a Deo factus est. inestimabile sacramentum, irreprehensibilis est. This place was made by God. a priceless mystery; it is beyond reproach. Gradual for the dedication of a church St Mark Passion, Op. 180 7. At the house of Simon the Leper Narrator: After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death. But they said. Chorus: Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people. Narrator: And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the Leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured

| Chorus: Why was this waste of the ointment made? For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. Narrator: And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, Jesus: Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but mey have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verilly I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, and shall be preached throughout the whole world, s | | | Jesus: It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish. The Son of man indeed goeth, as | King of Kings yet born of Mary, As of old on earth He stood, Lord of Lords in human vesture, |
|--|--|---|--|--|
| Why was this waste of the ointment made? For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. Narrator: And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, Jesus: Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, shall shall she preached throughout the whole world, sha | i: A | | 5 , | In the body and the blood; |
| For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. Narrator: And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, Jesus: Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel verily I say unto you, wheresoever the shall be preached throughout the whole world, Narrator: And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And in the evening aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, Narrator: It for that man if he had never been born. His own self for heavenly food. Chorus: Is it !? Spreads its vanguard on the way, As the light of light descendeth Narrator: From the realms of endless day, And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Mark 14:16-25 (King James) & Mark 14:16-25 (King James) & Liturgy of St James Take, eat: this is my body. (trans. Gerard Moultrie (1829-85)) Narrator: And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and flowers and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it | | | whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · |
| hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (trans. John Mason Neale (1818-66)) (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (trans. John Mason Neale (1818-66)) (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. (hundred pence, and have been given to the way. (his it !? (hundred pence, and base it, it is i | night have been sold for more than three (| (c. 540-c. 600) | it for that man if he had never been born. | |
| Narrator: And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, Jesus: Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, As the light of light descendeth Narrator: And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Mark 14:16-25 (King James) & Jesus: Take, eat: this is my body. Narrator: And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | | | | • |
| And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, Jesus: Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, As the light of light descendeth Narrator: And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and That the pow'rs of hell may vanish blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and as the darkness clears away. As the light of light descendeth Narrator: From the realms of endless day, And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and That the pow'rs of hell may vanish blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and as id, Mark 14:16-25 (King James) & Jesus: Take, eat: this is my body. Narrator: Narrator: Narrator: Narrator: As the light of light descendeth Narrator: From the realms of endless day, And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and That the pow'rs of hell may vanish blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Mark 14:16-25 (King James) & Liturgy of St James Take, eat: this is my body. Narrator: Narrator: And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | | | Chorus: | Rank on rank the host of heaven, |
| Narrator: Jesus: Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel Shall be preached throughout the whole world, Narrator: And his disciples went forth, and came into the blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, As the darkness clears away. As the darkness clears away. Mark 14:16-25 (King James) & Liturgy of St James Take, eat: this is my body. Narrator: Nardaor: And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Nark 14:16-25 (King James) & Liturgy of St James Take, eat: this is my body. Narrator: Narrator: And his disciples went forth, and came into the blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Nark 14:16-25 (King James) & Liturgy of St James Take, eat: this is my body. Narrator: And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | or: | | Is it I? | Spreads its vanguard on the way, |
| Jesus: Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, | ey murmured against her. And Jesus said, 8 | 8. The Upper Room | | As the light of light descendeth |
| Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the passover. And in the evening poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, Wrought a good work on me. For ye have the they made ready the passover. And in the evening had said, wark 14:16-25 (King James) & Jesus: Take, eat: this is my body. Narrator: And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | V | Narrator: | Narrator: | From the realms of endless day, |
| wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat and ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, where shall be tray me. they made ready the passover. And in the evening said, Jesus: Take, eat: this is my body. Narrator: And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | Α | And his disciples went forth, and came into the | And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and | That the pow'rs of hell may vanish |
| poor with you always, and whensever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, | calone; why trouble ye her? she hath | city, and found as he had said unto them: and | blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and | As the darkness clears away. |
| ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, we shall be tray me. did eat, Jesus said, Jesus: Take, eat: this is my body. (trans. Gerard Moultrie (1829-85)) Narrator: And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | nt a good work on me. For ye have the t ^j | they made ready the passover. And in the evening | said, | |
| She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, Werily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with shall be preached throughout the whole world, Werily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with shall be preached throughout the whole world, Werily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with Shall be preached throughout the whole world, Werily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with Warrator: And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | ith you always, and whensoever ye will h | he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat and | | Mark 14:16-25 (King James) & |
| aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel Shall be preached throughout the whole world, me shall betray me. Shall betray me. Shall betray me. And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | do them good: but me ye have not always. d | did eat, Jesus said, | Jesus: | Liturgy of St James |
| Verily I say unto you, wheresoever this gospel Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with shall be preached throughout the whole world, me shall betray me. Narrator: And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | th done what she could: she is come | | Take, eat: this is my body. | (trans. Gerard Moultrie (1829-85)) |
| shall be preached throughout the whole world, me shall betray me. And he took the cup, and when he had given 9. Gethsemane | and to anoint my body to the burying. Je | Jesus: | | |
| | say unto you, wheresoever this gospel V | Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with | Narrator: | |
| | | me shall betray me. | And he took the cup, and when he had given | 9. Gethsemane |
| this also that she hath done shall be spoken of thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. Narrator: | | | thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. | Narrator: |
| for a memorial of her. Narrator: And he said unto them, And they came to a place which was named | | | And he said unto them, | And they came to a place which was named |
| And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, | | | | Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, |
| Chorus: him one by one, Jesus: | | | | |
| The royal banners forward go, This is my blood of the new testament, which is Jesus: | | | • | Jesus: |
| The cross shines forth with mystic glow; Chorus: shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink Sit ye here, while I shall pray. | | | | Sit ye here, while I shall pray. |
| Where he in flesh, our flesh who made, Is it !? no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day | | | • | |
| Our sentence bore, our ransom paid. that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. Narrator: | | | that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. | Narrator: |
| Narrator: And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, | | | | And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, |
| O cross, our one reliance hail! and another said, Chorus: and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy; | · | | | and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy; |
| So may thy power with us avail Let all mortal flesh keep silence, And saith unto them, | | | The state of the s | And saith unto them, |
| To give new virtue to the saint, Chorus: And with fear and trembling stand; | | | | |
| And pardon to the penitent. Is it I? Ponder nothing earthly minded, Jesus: | rdon to the penitent. | | | Jesus: |
| For with blessing in his hand, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: | | | | My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: |
| To thee eternal Three in One, Narrator: Christ our God to earth descendeth tarry ye here, and watch. | • | | | tarry ye here, and watch. |
| Let homage meet by all be done: And he answered and said unto them, Our full homage to demand. | nage meet by all be done: | And he answered and said unto them, | Our full homage to demand. | |

| Narrator: | Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great | Which brought from Heav'n | but he answered nothing. And Pilate asked him |
|---|--|--|--|
| And he went forward a little, and fell on the | multitude with swords and staves, from the | The news and Prince of Peace. | again, saying, |
| ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, | chief priests and the scribes and the elders. | | 5 , , 6, |
| the hour might pass from him. And he said, | And he that betrayed him had given them a | Cease not, wet eyes, | Pilate: |
| | token, saying, | His mercies to entreat; | Answerest thou nothing? behold how many |
| Jesus: | | To cry for vengeance | things they witness against thee. |
| Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; | Judas: | Sin doth never cease. | ,, |
| take away this cup from me: nevertheless not | Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; | | Narrator: |
| what I will, but what thou wilt. | take him, and lead him away safely. | In your deep floods, | But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate |
| | | Drown all my faults and fears; | marvelled. Now at that feast he released unto |
| Narrator: | Narrator: | Nor let his eye | them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. |
| And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, | And as soon as he was come, he goeth | See sin, but through my tears | And there was one named Barabbas, who had |
| and saith unto Peter, | straightway to him, and saith, | See siii, Sat tiii Sagii iii, tears | committed murder in the insurrection. And the |
| , | . , , | Mark 14:32-49 (King James) & | multitude crying aloud began to desire him to |
| Jesus: | Judas: | Phineas Fletcher (1582-1650) | do as he had ever done unto them. But Pilate |
| Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou | Master, master; | , mineus / icitalici (2502 2050) | answered them, saying, |
| watch one hour? Watch ye and pray, lest ye | , | | unswered them, saying, |
| enter into temptation. The spirit truly is | Narrator: | 10. The Praetorium | Pilate: |
| ready, but the flesh is weak. | and kissed him. And they laid their hands on | Narrator: | Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? |
| ,,, | him, and took him. And one of them that | And straightway in the morning the chief priests | will ye that i release allto you the king of the sews. |
| Narrator: | stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant | held a consultation with the elders and scribes | Narrator: |
| And again he went away, and prayed, and | of the high priest, and cut off his ear. And | and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and | But the chief priests moved the people, that he |
| spake the same words. And when he returned, | Jesus answered and said unto them, | carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. | should rather release Barabbas unto them. |
| he found them asleep again, (for their eyes | , | And Pilate asked him, | And Pilate answered and said again unto them, |
| were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer | Jesus: | And I hate asked him, | And I hate answered and said again unto them, |
| him. And he cometh the third time, and saith | Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords | Pilate: | Pilate: |
| unto them, | and with staves to take me? I was daily with | Art thou the King of the Jews? | What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom |
| | you in the temple teaching, and ye took me | Art thou the king of the Jews: | ye call the King of the Jews? |
| Jesus: | not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled. | Narrator: | ye can the king of the Jews: |
| Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, | | And he answering said unto him, | Narrator: |
| the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is | Narrator: | And he answering said unto min, | And they cried out again, |
| betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise up, | And they all forsook him and fled. | Jesus: | And they they out again, |
| let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. | j ioroook min and near | Thou sayest it. | Chorus: |
| ice as go, io, iie and secrayeti iie is de iidia. | Chorus: | illou sayest it. | Crucify him, crucify him, crucify him. |
| Narrator: | Drop, drop, slow tears, | Narrator: | Crucity mini, crucity mini, crucity mini. |
| ivaliator. | 5.5p, a.5p, 5.5t taa.5, | ivairator. | |

And the chief priests accused him of many things:

And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh

And bathe those beauteous feet,

Then Pilate said unto them,

men Phate said unto them

Pilate:

Narrator:

Why what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly,

Chorus:

Crucify him, crucify him, crucify him.

Narrator:

And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

Chorus:

O sacred head, sore wounded, Defiled and put to scorn; O kingly head surrounded With mocking crown of thorn: What sorrow mars thy grandeur?

What sorrow mars thy grandeur? Can death thy bloom deflow'r O countenance whose splendour The hosts of heav'n adore

In thy most bitter passion
My heart to share doth cry,
With thee for my salvation
Upon the cross to die.
Ah, keep my heart thus moved
To stand thy Cross beneath,
To mourn thee, well-beloved,
Yet thank thee for thy death.

My days are few, O fail not, With thine immortal power, To hold me that I quail not In death's most fearful hour; That I might fight befriended, And see in my last strife To me thine arms extended Upon the cross of life.

Mark 15:1-9 & 11-15 (King James) & Paul Gerhardt (1607-76) from a fourteenth-century Latin hymn (trans. Robert Bridges (1844-1930))

11. Golgotha
Narrator:

And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,
And began to salute him.

Chorus:

Hail, King of the Jews!

Narrator:

And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. And the superscription of his accusation was written over,

Chorus: THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Narrator:

And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying,

Jesus:

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

Narrator:

and gave up the ghost. And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, and said,

Centurion:

Truly, truly this man was the Son of God.

Chorus:

When I survey the wondrous Cross On which the Prince of glory died, My richest gain I count but loss And pour contempt on all my pride.

See from his head, his hands, his feet, Sorrow and love flow mingled down; Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine, That were a present far too small; Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.

Mark 15: 17-18, 20, 24, 26, 33-34, 37 & 39 (King James) & Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Matthew Owens (Photography: Iain MacLeod-Jones)

Peter Auty (Photography: Pippa Wilson)

Richard May

Benjamin Bevan

David Rednall

Peter Auty (Narrator - tenor)

Peter Auty made his professional debut with Opera North in the 1998–9 season, and was a company principal with the Royal Opera, Covent Garden, from 1999 to 2002. Since then he has returned to Covent Garden as Malcolm (Macbeth) and Arturo (Lucia di Lammermoor).

Elsewhere in the UK he has worked with Glyndebourne Festival Opera, Opera Holland Park, Grange Park Opera, Welsh National Opera, English National Opera, and Scottish Opera. His repertoire includes Cavaradossi (Tosca), Count Vaudémont (Iolanta), Alvaro (The Force of Destiny), Turridu (Cavalleria rusticana), Canio (Pagliacci), Maurizio (Adriana Lecouvreur), Macduff (Macbeth), Nemorino (L'elisir d'amore), Don José (Carmen), Rodolfo (La bohème), Italian Tenor (Der Rosenkavalier), Duke (Rigoletto), Gabriele (Simon Boccanegra), Alfredo (La traviata), Lensky (Eugene Onegin), and the title-role in Gounod's Faust.

Abroad he has appeared as Canio, at Teatro Nacional de São Carlos in Lisbon; Don José, at Aalto Musiktheater Essen; and Lensky, at Malmö Opera. Further international engagements include Frankfurt Opera, Netherlands Reisopera, and New Zealand Opera. In concert he has sung with the London Symphony Orchestra under Sir Colin Davis and Sir Simon Rattle, the Hallé, the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment under Sir Mark Elder, and the London Philharmonic Orchestra under Neeme Järvi and Vladimir Jurowski. He has also appeared with the Iceland Symphony Orchestra under Vladimir Ashkenazy, the Bergen Philharmonic under Edward Gardner, and the Royal Flemish Philharmonic under Ed de Waart. He made his recital debut in London in the 2009 Rosenblatt Recital Series and he sang the tenor solo in Havergal Brian's 'Gothic' Symphony at the BBC Proms in 2011.

Benjamin Bevan (Jesus - baritone)

Benjamin Bevan is the youngest of fourteen brothers and sisters who formed a family choir with which he sang in his youth. Having pursued a career as a wine merchant, Benjamin changed direction and won a scholarship to the Guildhall School of Music and Drama to study singing. He made his Royal Opera House debut as Henry Cuffe in Britten's Gloriana, returning there to sing Der Sprecher (Die Zauberflöte). At The Royal Danish Opera, Benjamin has sung Lescaut (Boulevard Solitude) by Henze, a role he also sang at Welsh National Opera. For Scottish Opera he sang Morales (Carmen), Riccardo

Garsington Opera, Glyndebourne Festival Panufnik's work of the same name, which Opera, English Touring Opera, Opera was chosen as BBC Radio 3 CD of the week. Holland Park, Longborough Festival Opera. Lausanne Opera, Opéra de Dijon, and at Following on from winning the BBC TV Aix-en-Provence. On the concert platform, Young Musician of the Year String Section, Benjamin has worked with The English his London debut recital at the Purcell Room. Concert, Bach Collegium Japan, The included the world premiere of Five Duos Hanover Band, the BBC Philharmonic, the for cello and piano by Colin Matthews. A Stavanger Symphony Orchestra, and the acclaimed.

Richard May (cello)

As one of Britain's foremost cellists of his generation, Richard May pursues an international career as soloist and chamber musician, performing concertos with such orchestras as the Basel Symphony. Ulster and BBC Philharmonic, including appearances at Carnegie Hall, Wigmore Hall, Barbican and Southbank Centres, and at festivals in Salzburg, Berlin, London, and Aldeburgh. He has performed live on television and radio, both nationally and internationally, and recently featured as soloist in works for cello and choir on the

(I Puritani), Marcello (La Bohème), and

Colorado Symphony Orchestra, among many others. Recordings with London Early Opera, 'Handel in Italy Volumes 1 & 2', on the Signum Classics label were critically

Lescaut (Manon). He has also worked with recital of Bach Solo Suites in Switzerland gained critical acclaim for 'absolute perfection and virtuosity'. He also gave a televised recital for the series Solo, featuring British musicians, and has performed as soloist and chamber musician with Nigel Kennedy as well as recently collaborating with the Brodsky Quartet.

Naxos disc All Shall be Well, including the world premiere recording of Roxanna

Richard studied in London with Florence Hooton, winning a Scholarship to the Royal Academy of Music, and subsequently with William Pleeth, then later with Thomas Demenga at the Basel Konservatorium. He also won awards to study at Banff. Yale. Prussia Cove, and La Chaux-de-Fonds, with such artists as Paul Tortelier, Aldo Parisot, Ralph Kirshbaum, and chamber music with András Schiff. Past prizes include National Federation of Music Societies Award and EMI Jacqueline du Pré Competition, when

The Times wrote of the Shostakovich

Sonata 'simply one of the most gripping

He was cellist of the Angell Piano Trio for Specialist Music School and is co-founder/

Artistic Director of Encore Music Projects

International Summer School, He is an performances I have heard'.

twenty years, who were Ensemble-in-Residence at Aldeburgh and performed worldwide Richard teaches cello at Wells Cathedral

Associate of the Royal Academy of Music and plays an Old English cello of 1789. by William Forster. David Bednall (organ) David Bednall is recognised as one of the leading choral composers of his generation and studied for a PhD in Composition with Professor John Pickard at the University of Bristol. He is a Teaching Fellow and Organist of The University of Bristol, Sub Organist at Bristol Cathedral, and conducts The University Singers. He was Organ Scholar of The Queen's College, Oxford, held a number of posts at Gloucester

Cathedral, and was Assistant Organist at

Wells Cathedral His teachers included

Dr Naji Hakim and David Briggs.

He won prizes in improvisation and and a recording of improvisations with Malcolm Archer received excellent reviews He has improvised live on radio, and performance at the examination for FRCO performed extensively in the UK and abroad. including a recital at Notre-Dame de Paris. He also appeared as stunt-organist on Dr Who

His compositions are widely recorded, and the album Hail, gladdening light was a Gramophone Editor's Choice. The recording of his Requiem received similar accolades.

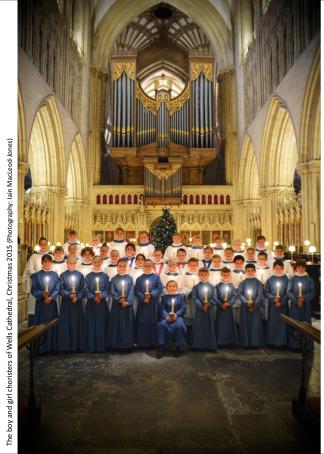

and a further recording, Flame Celestial, received a Gramophone Recommendation. His largest work to date, Welcome All Wonders, was commissioned by The Queen's College, Oxford, and their recording on Signum Classics has garnered superb international critical acclaim. The recording

James Gilchrist, Philip Dukes, and Anna

Tilbrook, which was premiered in Hull in July 2017.

of his Stabat Mater on Regent with Jennifer Pike (violin) and the Chapel Choir of Benenden School under Edward Whiting was an Editor's Choice in the Awards Edition of Gramophone 2016. Recent projects include a BBC Commission for

Wells Cathedral Choir

Wells Cathedral Choir was hailed in 2011 by an international jury from Gramophone magazine as the greatest choir with children in the world, and the sixth greatest overall. The choir celebrated its 1100th birthday in 2009: boys first sang at Wells Cathedral in 909 and the full choral tradition dates back over 800 years. In 1994 the choral foundation at Wells was enriched by the addition of girl choristers. Today the choir consists of 18 boy choristers, 18 girl choristers and 12 Vicars Choral (the men of the choir). The boys and girls usually sing separately with the Vicars Choral but occasionally come together for larger events and tours.

life of the Cathedral, and sings a wide repertoire of music ranging from the Renaissance period to the present day. It sings throughout the cathedral's festival, launched in June 2008: new music wells, giving a number of premieres as well as featuring music from the previous forty years. It has premiered works from some of today's finest composers, including Lord (Michael) Berkeley CBE, Judith Bingham, Geoffrey Burgon, Bob Chilcott, Jonathan Dove, Gabriel Jackson, John Joubert, Sir James MacMillan CBE, Sir Peter Maxwell

Davies CH CBE (former Master of the

The choir is at the heart of the worshipping

Queen's Music), Tarik O'Regan, John Rutter, Howard Skempton, and Sir John Tavener.

Wells Cathedral Choir broadcasts regularly on BBC Radio 3 and its innovative recordings over the last eleven years for Hyperion Records and Regent Records have won international praise and has had two discs made Editor's Choice in Gramophone magazine.

As well as the liturgical musical repertoire the choir performs larger scale choral works in concert, with recent collaborations including the BBC National Orchestra of Wales (Britten War Requiem), Jools Holland and his band (Jools Holland Mass), Wells Cathedral Oratorio Society (Britten St Nicolas and War Requiem), Dame Felicity Lott, Dame Emma Kirkby, James Bowman CBE, and Wells Cathedral School Chamber Orchestra (at a royal gala concerts at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, and St James's Palace, London). In September 2014 the choristers sang with the Berlin Radio Choir and the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of Sir Simon Rattle OM, in a performance of Bach's St Matthew Passion at the BBC Proms.

The choir has toured extensively with recent tours to France, Germany, The Netherlands, Hong Kong, and Beijing.

Matthew Owens with John Joubert following the first performance of the St Mark Passion on the occasion of the composer's 89th birthday, 20 March 2016.

(Photography: Jacinth Latta)

Matthew Owens (conductor)

Matthew Owens became Organist and Master of the Choristers of Wells Cathedral in 2005, having previously been Organist and Master of the Music at St Mary's Episcopal Cathedral, Edinburgh, and Sub Organist of Manchester Cathedral, In addition to being responsible for the 1100-year-old tradition of daily sung worship at Wells Cathedral, Matthew has toured. broadcast, and recorded extensively with Wells Cathedral Choir. He is the Founder. Artistic Director of three initiatives at Wells: Cathedral Commissions, a scheme which commissions new works from pre-eminent British composers: the cathedral's innovative festival, new music wells; and its counterpart, Early Music Wells.

Matthew was educated at Chetham's School of Music; The Queen's College, Oxford; the Royal Northern College of Music; and the Amsterdam Conservatorium. Studying with Gordon Stewart, Margaret Phillips, and Jacques van Oortmerssen, he won all the major prizes in the diplomas of the Royal College of Organists. From 1994-99, he was Tutor in Organ at the RNCM and Chetham's, and worked for BBC Religious Broadcasting; he was Conductor of The Exon Singers (1997-2011), and President of the Cathedral Organists' Association (2010-13).

As Musical Director of the Wells Cathedral Oratorio Society, a chorus of over 150 singers, he has performed the major works of the repertoire with some of the south of England's leading professional orchestras. Matthew has directed choral workshops and summer schools throughout the UK and abroad – including recent visits to Australia, China, Germany, Hong Kong, Luxembourg, New Zealand, and the USA – and has made over thirty recordings as a conductor with major labels including Hyperion, Signum, and Resonus Classics.

As an organist. Matthew has given recitals in Australia, France, Ireland, Spain, Switzerland, New Zealand, the USA, and throughout the UK, including many festival appearances, and is currently performing the complete works of Bach at Wells Cathedral over a series of thirty-six recitals. He has championed new music, particularly of British composers, conducting over 190 world premieres, including works by leading composers ranging from Jools Holland to Sir James MacMillan, and John Rutter to Sir Peter Maxwell Davies As a composer himself, he is published by Oxford University Press, Novello, and the RSCM.

Wells Cathedral Choir

Boy Choristers

Tom Bates

Henry Dukes (Deputy Head Chorister) Xavier Hobday-Padamadan

Alexei James-Cudworth

Hugh Latta (Head Chorister) Ozzie Latta

Ross Llovd

James MacGeoch

Bailey Roberts (Deputy Head Chorister)

Taylor Thompson

Girl Choristers

Harriet Carlill

Carla Coombs

Frin Davies

Madeline Davis Orla Donoghue

(Head Chorister, soloist tracks 2 & 4) Cecilia Fawden

Eliza Green

Madeleine Hughes Eliza Mead

Beth Mitton

Jessica Morrell (soloist tracks 2 & 4) Sophie Morrell

Harriet Perring

(Deputy Head Chorister, soloist tracks 1, 8 & 11)

Astrid Rose-Edwards

Countertenor

John Buckland (tracks 1-6 only)

Simon Clulow

Aidan Cruttenden (tracks 1-6 only) Theo Golden

Stephen Harvey (soloist tracks 2 & 4)

Tim Wilson

Tenor

Alexander James Edwards (tracks 1-6 only) Edward Goater (soloist tracks 2 & 4)

Oscar Golden-Lee Jain MacLeod-Jones

lack Wilde

Bass

Craig Bissex (soloist track 8) William Drakett (tracks 1-6 only)

Mike Entwistle (tracks 1-6 only)

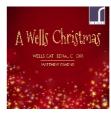

Andrew Kidd

Christopher Sheldrake (soloist tracks 2 & 4) William White

Thanks are due to the following in their assistance with the making of this recording:

Mrs Diana Armstrona, Mrs Sarah Donoahue. Mrs Karen Green, Mrs Violaine James-Cudworth. Ms Anna Joubert, Mr James Kealey, Dr Alex and Mrs Dehhie Kolomhos Mr Richard Pomeroy, and Mr Andrew John Smith

More titles from Resonus Classics

A Wells Christmas Wells Cathedral Choir Matthew Owens (conductor) RFS10176

'[...] Matthew Owens and his combined Wells Cathedral forces of boys and girls present a beautifully sung and exceptionally well-recorded disc'

Choir & Organ

RES10169

Sergei Rachmaninoff: Vespers (All-Night Vigil), Op. 37 Saint Thomas Choir of Men & Boys, Fifth Avenue. New York John Scott (conductor)

'It is a magnificent rendition, showing just how this masterpiece has been convincingly absorbed into the wider choral tradition, and I recommend it very highly indeed.' Gramophone (Editor's Choice)

© 2017 Resonus Limited

@ 2017 Resonus Limited Recorded in Wells Cathedral, Somerset on 17-18 May & 7-8 June 2017 by kind permission of the Chapter.

Producer, engineer & editor: Adam Binks Recorded at 24-bit/96kHz resolution

Cover image: Wells Cathedral Crucifixion Triptych, centre panel. oil on linen, 213x183 (2012), by Richard Pomeroy

RESONUS LIMITED - UK

info@resonusclassics.com www.resonusclassics.com