Philip Wilby

An English Passion according to Saint Matthew

Mhairi Lawson soprano
Helen Charlston mezzo-soprano
Thomas Elwin tenor
Seán Boylan baritone
Ben McAteer baritone
David Leigh chamber organ
Jack Wilson organ

Belfast Cathedral Choir Matthew Owens conductor

Philip Wilby (b.1949)

An English Passion according to Saint Matthew

Mhairi Lawson soprano ^{6,8,10,14,15} Helen Charlston mezzo-soprano ^{6,7,9,10,14,15,16} Thomas Elwin tenor, Jesus ^{6,7,8,2,10,14,15}

Seán Boylan baritone, Judas & Pilate ^{6,8,9,10,11,13,14,15,16} Ben McAteer baritone, Peter ^{6,7,8,9,10,11,13,14,15,16}

Ben McAteer baritone, Peter

David Leigh chamber organ

Jack Wilson organ

Belfast Cathedral Choir Matthew Owens conductor

About Belfast Cathedral Choir:

'An ensemble of high quality [...] The choir's tonal purity and impeccable tuning are a pleasure'
BBC Music Magazine

'[This] could well be the finest all-adult standing choir of its kind anywhere' Gramophone

Philip Wilby (b.1949)

1. God's Grandeur

The Knaresborough Service

2. Magnificat

3. Nunc dimittis

14. Golgotha

3. Nunc dimittis [3:55]
An English Passion according to [4:37]

[5:54]

[3:31]

[6:48]

Saint Matthew
4. Collect
Part One

 5. Processional Hymn
 [4:19]

 6. The Upper Room – Hymn 2
 [6:34]

 7. Denial
 [1:53]

 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest
 [5:46]

 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest
 [5:46]

 9. Before Caiaphas
 [2:12]

 10. Peter's Denial
 [3:43]

 11. Before the Governor
 [1:35]

 12. Hymn 3
 [1:34]

 13. Barabbas
 [4:48]

 Part Two

 15. Hymn 4
 [3:23]

 16. Apotheosis
 [1:33]

 17. Procession of Christ and His Cross
 [0:42]

 18. Recessional Hymn
 [4:48]

Total playing time [67:44]

 $\label{eq:local_problem} \textit{All world premiere recordings, made in the presence of the composer}$

Recording in Belfast Cathedral

We made this recording of some of my choral works, including An English Passion according to Saint Matthew, in the summer of 2021, with a small and expert group of socially distanced singers and organists.

The Passion setting takes, as its framework, five of the folksong hymns collected from Vaughan Williams's English Hymnal, arranged in a chiastic design, and providing worshippers with welcome involvement in the narrative. Canon Richard Cooper, who prepared the text for my music, summed up Vaughan Williams's mighty example in these words: 'Rowan Williams said of Vaughan Williams that, although he was a self-professed agnostic, we can say that he was at least a Christian Agnostic, drawn back time and again to the great Christian tradition in which he had been brought up.'

As events have turned out, the recording of An English Passion falls into a celebration of the 150th anniversary of Vaughan Williams.

As can be readily imagined in the middle of a worldwide pandemic, the experience was beset by logistical issues, presenting problems of travel, accommodation, musical preparation, and venue availability. That it happened at all is surprising. That it has proved to be such a fine record of challenging times is miraculous, and a credit to the energy and expertise of all concerned.

© 2022 Philip Wilby

Philip Wilby: An English Passion

When Philip Wilby was a violinist in the National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain. he attended classes by Herbert Howells which inspired his interest in composition. After graduating from Keble College, Oxford, he worked as a professional violinist before becoming Principal Lecturer (later Professor) in Composition at Leeds University. Though he has written for a wide variety of performing forces, including symphonic works, he has concentrated particularly on two areas: brass band music, and the Christian liturgy, for which he has composed extensively. The church music on the present disc was all composed between 2014 and 2019.

The earliest of the three works is the Knaresborough Service, commissioned by the Parish Church of St John the Baptist in Knaresborough, North Yorkshire, and dedicated to Richard Darke, its Director of Music for many years. While always fresh and individual, Wilby's setting of the 'Magnificat' and 'Nunc dimittis' also has a the liturgical compositions of his early throughout, even in quieter passages such mentor, Howells. The opening of the as the central section for three solo 'Magnificat' is muscular and energetic. sopranos ('And for all this nature is never spent'). giving way to a more serene section led After a radiant climactic moment on the off by three solo sopranos ('He hath filled words 'Bright wings', the anthem ends softly. the hungry with good things'). Finally, the music from the start is reworked for the Wilby composed An English Passion closing Doxology ('Glory be to the Father'). according to Saint Matthew in 2018, for and a triumphal 'Amen', ending on a chord Matthew Owens and the choir of Wells of E major. The 'Nunc dimittis' is broader, Cathedral, A clue to one important musical starting with an idea introduced by tenors characteristic of the work can be found in and basses, then altos, before the sopranos the composer's note: 'The congregational enter on 'For mine eyes have seen thy hymns are taken from the collection of salvation'. In general, the music is subdued English tunes, published by Vaughan until the Doxology returns, bringing the Williams in his English Hymnal of 1906.' service to a strong and confident close. These are threaded throughout the Passion narrative: after the opening Collect, Gerard Manley Hopkins's poem God's the first Processional Hymn ('All glory, laud Grandeur was written in 1877 and first and honour') is set to the tune Kingsfold published in 1895, six years after the (also known as Dives and Lazarus). Hymn Two is a verse of the tune Vaughan Williams poet's death. Since then, it has attracted motifs (one of them marked 'heraldic') published in 1909 as 'This is the truth sent Herefordshire, and this takes on a much greater musical significance in the scenes that follow. Hymn Three is the tune known

Williams in 1905 from a fisherman in North from above', a modal folk tune from as King's Lynn, collected by Vaughan

Street, King's Lynn (usually sung to G.K.

Chesterton's words. 'O God of earth and altar', but here set to 'The silent Saviour which energise the musical argument clear ancestry in the service music of previous British composers, particularly numerous musical settings by the likes of Samuel Barber, Arthur Bliss, Peter

Dickinson, Kenneth Leighton, Edmund

Rubbra, and Martin Shaw. Philip Wilby

2017 with his anthem for mixed voices and organ, composed 'for the Choir of part includes a number of fanfare-like Ripon Grammar School and their conductor Edward Seymour.' The organ ioined this distinguished company in cappella harmonisation. The last of the congregational hymns, 'It is a thing most wonderful', is set to the tune Vaughan Williams called Herongate, named after the village in Essex where he collected it in 1903 and which he used to set the same words as No. 597 in the English Hymnal. These hymns, with their timeless melodies, anchor Wilby's Passion in a very English setting, and also serve as collective reference points for the congregation.

stands alone'). Hymn Four, 'When I survey the wondrous cross', for choir alone, uses a variant of the tune 'O Walv. Walv' ('The water is wide'), published by Cecil Sharp

as No. 66 of his Folk Songs of Somerset reflecting on particular moments in the narrative. Wilby is clear that his setting needs participation from those present at live performances, and makes the unduly modest claim that it is 'designed to involve

The text was derived from St Matthew's

Gospel by Richard Cooper, Canon Emeritus of Ripon Cathedral and a former chaplain both make dramatic use of the silences at several points for contemplation and the tenor soloist, while those of the reaction. The words of Jesus are given to to the Queen. The words and Wilby's music inherent in the Gospel text - allowing time

rather than to impress.'

(1906); here it is given an elaborate a overtly theatrical passage comes in the 'Barabbas' scene (track 13), at the end of situation, and has Christ taken away scene with Barabbas, the music now has a more inward-looking air of tragedy, the eight-part choral harmonies at their richest, until the pitches converge on a single note (D) and Jesus breathes his last,

its fourth verse unaccompanied, the sixth crowned by a radiant descant, and a coda played on the full organ. This may seem a surprising way to end a Passion, but after exploring and reflecting on the calamity followed by silence. The consoling words of 'When I survey the wondrous cross' are brutally interrupted by the organ and the 'Apotheosis' leads to one of the work's climactic utterances. 'This man was God's son'. An organ interlude precedes the closing hymn. 'It is a thing most wonderful'.

to be crucified. After the austerity of this scene, Part Two opens with the crowd gathered at Golgotha, but instead of continuing the agitated atmosphere of the

and the music is pared back to bare essentials - as Pilate vields to the wishes of the crowd, washes his hands of the Part One. Here the dialogue between soloists, choir, and organ is marked by Evangelist are distributed among the other voices, and the choir adds its weight and colour throughout. Perhaps the most increasing urgency until stark reality hits - and suffering of the Crucifixion story, Wilby's aim at the close is surely to affirm the faith	Texts

•	1. God's Grandeur
of Christians today.	The world is charged with the grandeur of God.
	It will flame out, like shining from shook foil;
© 2022 Nigel Simeone	It gathers to a greatness, like the ooze of oil Crushed. Why do men then now not reck his rod?
	Generations have trod, have trod;
	And all is seared with trade; bleared, smeared with toil;
	And wears man's smudge and shares man's smell: the soil
	Is bare now, nor can foot feel, being shod.
	And for all this, nature is never spent;
	There lives the dearest freshness deep down things;
	And though the last lights off the black West went Oh, morning, at the brown brink eastward, springs —
	Because the Holy Ghost over the bent World broods with warm breast and with ah! bright wings.
	Gerald Manley Hopkins (1844–89)
	The Knaresborough Service
	2. Magnificat
	My soul doth magnify the Lord:
	and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
	For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.
	For behold, from henceforth:
	all generations shall call me blessed.
	For he that is mighty hath magnified me:
	and holy is his Name.
	And his mercy is on them that fear him:
	throughout all generations.
	He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
	He hath put down the mighty from their seat:
	and hath exalted the humble and meek.
	He hath filled the hungry with good things:
	and the rich he hath sent empty away.
	He remembering his mercy hath holpen forefathers. Abraham and his seed for ever. Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace: according to thy word. For mine eyes have seen: thy salvation, Which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people: To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall he world without end Luke 2, vv 29-32 and Gloria Patri An English Passion according to Saint Matthew 4. Collect for Palm Sunday Almighty and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant, that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers his servant Israel; as he promised to our

Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost: Book of Common Prayer As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Part One Amen. 5. Processional Hymn All glory, laud and honour Luke 1, vv 46-55 and Gloria Patri To Thee, Redeemer, King, To whom the lips of children 3. Nunc dimittis Made sweet hosannas ring. Thou art the King of Israel, > Thou David's royal Son, Who in the Lord's name cometh The King and blessed one. In vain the prophets' voices cry Their message to God's own. But now they look for one whose sword May claim an earthly throne.

of his resurrection; through the same Jesus

Christ our Lord. Amen

Your reign on earth begin, O Son of Man. Messiah, Lord. Come save us all from sin. The Living Word, the Christ will show What love and truth can be.

Come Lord of Life, come to your throne.

In Nazareth, in Galilee. And soon on Calvary. The messenger the message is, In Christ are both made one.

The Father's Love revealed to us In him, His only Son.

O come, O come Emmanuel, of David's line foretold.

Your Holy Spirit dwells in us And tells us of our worth,

O come, O Lord, and here fulfil

The prophecies of old.

ty to a certain man and ther says, my time is near; wer at your house." iples did as Jesus had ney prepared the Passover vening, he took his place while they were eating, one of you will betray the precame greatly distressed thim one after another,	Narrator: Then he took a cup and, after giving thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom. Hymn 2 The bread and wine that Jesus gives Is love that binds us all to him; Judas was there, And so it is, [Refrain] Your faithless friend can walk with you. 7. Denial Narrator: When they had sung the hymn, they went out	I too am Peter when courage fails, my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, Jesus: Sit here while I go over there and pray. I am deeply grieved, even unto death; remain here, and stay awake with me. My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet not what I want but what you want. Narrator: Then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter,	Judas: The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him. Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him, Jesus: Friend, do what you are here to do. Narrator: Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested him. Then all the disciples deserted him and fled. And love is not killed by the sword, but by a kiss the coward gives. Forgive me Lord. And so it is, All: your faithless friend can walk with you.
ther says, my time is near; wer at your house." iples did as Jesus had ney prepared the Passover vening, he took his place I while they were eating, , one of you will betray	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom. Hymn 2 The bread and wine that Jesus gives Is love that binds us all to him; Judas was there, And so it is,	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, Jesus: Sit here while I go over there and pray. I am deeply grieved, even unto death; remain here, and stay awake with me. My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me;	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him, Jesus: Friend, do what you are here to do. Narrator: Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested him. Then all the disciples deserted him and fled. And love is not killed by the sword, but by a kiss the coward gives.
ther says, my time is near; wer at your house." iples did as Jesus had ney prepared the Passover vening, he took his place I while they were eating,	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom. Hymn 2 The bread and wine that Jesus gives Is love that binds us all to him; Judas was there, And so it is,	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, Jesus: Sit here while I go over there and pray. I am deeply grieved, even unto death; remain here, and stay awake with me. My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me;	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him, Jesus: Friend, do what you are here to do. Narrator: Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested him. Then all the disciples deserted him and fled. And love is not killed by the sword,
ther says, my time is near; wer at your house." iples did as Jesus had ney prepared the Passover vening, he took his place I while they were eating,	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom. Hymn 2 The bread and wine that Jesus gives Is love that binds us all to him; Judas was there,	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, Jesus: Sit here while I go over there and pray. I am deeply grieved, even unto death; remain here, and stay awake with me.	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him, Jesus: Friend, do what you are here to do. Narrator: Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested him. Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.
ther says, my time is near; wer at your house." iples did as Jesus had ney prepared the Passover vening, he took his place I while they were eating,	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom. Hymn 2 The bread and wine that Jesus gives Is love that binds us all to him;	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, Jesus: Sit here while I go over there and pray. I am deeply grieved, even unto death; remain here,	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him, Jesus: Friend, do what you are here to do. Narrator: Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and her says, my time is near; ver at your house.' iples did as Jesus had ney prepared the Passover vening, he took his place	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom. Hymn 2 The bread and wine that Jesus gives	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, Jesus: Sit here while I go over there and pray.	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him, Jesus: Friend, do what you are here to do. Narrator: Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and
her says, my time is near; ver at your house.' iples did as Jesus had ney prepared the Passover vening, he took his place	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom. Hymn 2	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples,	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him, Jesus: Friend, do what you are here to do.
her says, my time is near; ver at your house.' iples did as Jesus had ney prepared the Passover vening, he took his place	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom.	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him,
.her says, my time is near; ver at your house.' iples did as Jesus had hey prepared the Passover	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest Narrator: Then Jesus went with them to a place called	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi! Narrator: and kissed him. Jesus said to him,
.her says, my time is near; ver at your house.' iples did as Jesus had	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you. 8. Gethsemane and the Arrest	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi!
her says, my time is near; ver at your house.'	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will never again drink of	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is All: Your faithless friend can walk with you.	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, Judus: Greetings, Rabbi!
ther says, my time is near;	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said,
ther says, my time is near;	he gave it to them, saying, Jesus: Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the	my fear kills loyalty and trust. Christ stands alone, and so it is	Narrator: At once he came up to Jesus and said, he gave it to them, saying,	my fear kills loyalty and trust.	·
y to a certain man and		my fear kills loyalty and trust.	·
			Judas: The one I will kiss is the man; arrest him.
	Narrator: Then he took a cun and after giving thanks	I too am Peter when courage fails	ludas: The one I will kiss is the man: arrest him to eat the Passover?	Jesus: Take, eat, this is my body.	Narrator: And so said all the disciples.	and clubs. Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying,
you want us to make the			twelve, arrived; with him was a large crowd with swords
Jesus, saying,	disciples, and said,	you.	Narrator: While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to the	Peter: Even though I must die with you, I will not deny the disciples came to	Narrator: While they were eating, Jesus took a loaf of		hands of sinners, etray him. On the first day		Narrator: Peter said to him,	hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the ent he began to look for	Jesus: You have said so.		Jesus: Are you still sleeping, and taking your rest? See, the him thirty pieces of silver,		crows, you will deny me three times.	·
	Narrator: Jesus replied,	Jesus: Truly I tell you, this very night, before the cock	words. Then he came to the disciples and said to them,
5			away, and prayed for the third time, saying the same give me if I betray him	Judas: Surely, not I, Rabbi?	Narrator: Jesus said to him,	their eyes were heavy. So leaving them again, he went and said,	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		Narrator: Again he came and found them sleeping for Narrator: Judas, who betrayed him, said,	I will never desert you!
to the chief priests		Peter: Though all become deserters because of you,	Your will be done.
twelve, who was called	one not to have been born.		Jesus: My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, of Man is betrayed, it would have been better for that	Narrator: Peter said to him,	• • • written of him, but woe to that one by whom the Son	.,,	prayed,
e (1818–66)	with me will betray me, the Son of Man goes as it is	up, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.	Narrator: Again he went away for the second time and ans (d.821);	Jesus: The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl	sheep of his flock will be scattered.' But after I am raised 946), with the refrain by		night; for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the	weak.
	Narrator: Jesus answered,	Jesus: You will all become deserters because of me this	time of trial; the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is Stay awake and pray, that you may not come into the
rth.	Disciples: Surely not I, Lora?	to the Mount of Olives. Jesus said to them,	Jesus: So, could you not stay awake with me one hour?
ans (d.821	the refrain by);	the refrain by); Jesus: The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl	Narrator: Jesus answered, the refrain by Jesus: You will all become deserters because of me this night; for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of his flock will be scattered.' But after I am raised

9. Before Caiaphas	to Peter,	lie still, their work now done.	Crowd: Barabbas!
Narrator: Those who had arrested Jesus took him to		Soon others will task them
Caiaphas the High Priest, but Peter was following him at	Crowd: Certainly you are also one of them, for your accent	and raise them up on high,	Narrator: Pilate said to them, a distance. Now the chief Priests and the whole council	betrays you.	not now to bless the ones who ask, were looking for false testimony against Jesus so that		but then to love and die.	Pilate: Then what should I do with Jesus, who is called the
they might put him to death.	Narrator: Then he began to curse, and he swore an oath,		Messiah?
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	,	For Love of us, the Saviour waits.
Witnesses: This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the	Peter: I do not know the man!	his stillness calls our name.	Narrator: All of them said.
temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'	reterring not know the mann	He bears our love and anger.	Narrator. 7 in or them salay temple of dod and rebuild it in three days.	Narrator: At that moment the cock crowed. Then Peter	our need to fear and blame.	Crowd: Let him be crucified!
Narrator: The High Priest stood up and said,	remembered what Jesus had said: 'Before the cock crows	He answers all with silence	Crowd. Let fill be cracilled:
Natrator. The right Priest stood up and said,			Nameton Theo he called 2001 2001 11	you will deny me three times.' And he went out and wept	which offers us the way.	Narrator: Then he asked,
High Priest: Have you no answer? What is it that they	bitterly.	His captors sing of darkest night, testify against you?		his love of brightest day.	Pilate: Why? What evil has he done?
	Judas and Peter, betrayers both,
Narrator: But Jesus was silent.	Regret and guilt is all they know.	Richard Cooper	Narrator: But they shouted all the more,
	I know it too. And so it is,
The messenger the message is.		13. Barabbas	Crowd: Let him be crucified!
It's love not law he comes to give,	All: Your faithless friend can walk with you.	Narrator: Now at the festival the Governor was accustomed
But law is safe, and so it is,		to release a prisoner for the crowd: anyone whom they	Narrator: So when Pilate saw that he could do nothing,
	Narrator: Jesus stood before the governor; and the	wanted. At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called	but rather that a riot was beginning; he took some water
All: Your faithless friend can walk with you.	governor asked him,	Jesus Barabbas. So after they had gathered, Pilate said to	and washed his hands before the crowd, saying,
		them.	. , .
10. Peter's Denial	Pilate: Are you the King of the Jews?	,	Pilate: I am innocent of this man's blood; see to it
Narrator: Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard.	,	Pilate: Whom do you want me to release for you? Jesus	yourselves.
A servant-girl came to him and said,	Narrator: Jesus said.	Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called the Messiah?	,
A Servante girr carrie to mini and sard,	Turrator yesus saray	barabbas, or sesas, who is called the messian.	Narrator: So he released Barabbas for them: and after
Servant-girl One: You also were with Jesus the Galilean.	Jesus: You say so.	Narrator: For he realized that it was out of jealousy that	flogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucified.
Servantegin One. Tod also were with Jesus the damean.	Jesus. Iou say so.	they had handed him over. While he was sitting on the	nogging Jesus, he handed him over to be crucined.
Narrator: But he denied it before all of them, saying,	11. Before the Governor	judgment seat, his wife sent word to him,	Part Two
Narrator: But he denied it before all of them, saying,		judgment seat, his wife sent word to him,
	Narrator: But when he was accused by the high priests		14. Golgotha
Peter: I do not know what you are talking about.	and elders, he did not answer. Then Pilate said to him,	Pilate's Wife: Have nothing to do with that innocent man,	Narrator: And they came to a place called Golgotha, which for I have suffered a great deal because of a dream about	means the Place of a Skull. They offered him wine to drink,
Narrator: When he went out to the porch, another	Pilate: Do you not hear how many accusations they make	him.	mixed with gall; but when he tasted it, he would not drink servant-girl saw him and she said, to the bystanders,	against you?		it, and when they had crucified him, they divided his
		Narrator: Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded	clothes among themselves by casting lots; then they sat
Servant-girl Two: This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.	Narrator: But he gave him no answer, not even to a single	the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus killed.	down there and kept watch over him. Over his head they charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.	The governor again said to them,	put the charge against him which read, 'This is Jesus, the Narrator: Again he denied it with an oath,			King of the Jews.' Then two bandits were crucified with
-	12. Hymn 3	Pilate: Which of the two do you want me to release to you?	him; one on his right and one on his left. Those who
Peter: I do not know the man.	The silent Saviour stands alone	,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,	passed by derided him, shaking their heads and saying,
	before the Governor's throne.	Narrator: And they said,	,,
Narrator: After a while the bystanders came up and said	Close by his side his healing hands	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
ap and said

Narrator: The chief priests also, along with the scribes and elders were mocking him, and saying, Crowd: He saved others: he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down from the cross now and we will believe in him. He trusts in God? Let God deliver him now, if he wants to for he said, 'I am God's Son!' Narrator: The bandits who were crucified with him also taunted him in the same way. From noon on, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And about three o'clock Jesus cried with a loud voice. Jesus: Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani? Narrator: That is.

Crowd: You who would destroy the Temple, and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross.

me?

him.

drink. But the others said, breathed his last.

Jesus: 'My God, My God, why have you forsaken

Narrator: When some of the bystanders heard it, they said.

Crowd: This man is calling for Elijah.

Narrator: At once one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to

Crowd: Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save

Narrator: Then Jesus cried again with a loud voice and

It is a thing most wonderful, almost too wonderful to be.

16. Anotheosis

15. Hvmn 4

When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of Glory died, and pour contempt on all my pride.

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ my God!

I sacrifice them to His blood.

All the vain things that charm me most,

See from His head, His hands, His feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down,

did e'er such love and sorrow meet,

or thorns compose so rich a crown?

it were an offering far too small;

demands my soul, my life, my all,

Love so amazing, so divine,

Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Were the whole realm of nature mine

my richest gain I count but loss,

18. Recessional Hymn

Crowd: Truly this Man was God's Son!

Narrator: At that moment the curtain of the temple was bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised.

Narrator: Now when the Centurion and those with him, who were keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were terrified and said, torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks were split. The tombs also were opened and many that God's own Son should come from heaven. and die to save a child like me.

and wept and toiled and mourned and died for love of those who loved him not.

And yet I know that it is true:

he chose a poor and humble lot.

I cannot tell how he could love a child so weak and full of sin: his love must be most wonderful, if he could die my love to win. I sometimes think about the Cross, and shut my eyes and try to see the cruel nails, and crown of thorns, and Jesus crucified for me. But even could I see him die.

I could but see a little part of that great love which, like a fire. is always burning in his heart.

And yet I want to love thee, Lord, O light the flame within my heart. and I will love thee more and more. until I see thee as thou art

William Walsham How (1823-97)

Philip Wilby (composer) was encouraged to take up composition by Herbert Howells. He studied at Keble College Oxford, and was made Professor of Composition at Leeds University in 2002. In 2008, he was granted a Dutch Government BUMA award for his innovative works for brass band, and in 2009 an honorary fellowship by the Royal School of Church Music. He is proud to have served as the musical associate at the Black Dyke Band for thirty years, with which he made his recent album Pilgrim's Progress.

His recent recordings include several discs of choral music including The Holy Face, composed for the Halifax Choral Society, A Brontë Mass with the London Bach Choir, and Heaven in Ordinarie with Matthew Owens and the Exon Singers. With this recording, An English Passion represents the second in a trilogy of compositions marking the anniversary celebrations for Vaughan Williams's 150th birthday in 2022.

Irish baritone Seán Boylan studied on the Opera Course at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama and at the Royal Irish Academy of Music. Recent and upcoming operatic engagements include title role Don Giovanni(Nevill Holt Opera), Tarquinius The Rape of Lucretic (Kammerakademie Potsdam), Guglielmo Così fan tutte (Garsington Opera), and Moralès Carmen (Irish National Opera);

recent concert highlights include Handel's Messiah (Nevill Holt Opera), Bach's Christmas Oratorio (Deutscher Chor London), and recitals in the UK. Ireland. and the USA.

Helen Charlston (mezzo soprano) joined Le Jardin des Voix academy with Les Arts Florissants in 2021, and the BBC Radio 3 New Generation Artists scheme, and also became winner of the Ferrier Loveday Song Prize in the Kathleen Ferrier Awards. Recent and upcoming concert highlights include Bach's Weihnachtoratorium with Casa da Musica. Judas Maccabaeus with the RIAS Kammerchor, a worldwide tour of Handel's Messiah with the Seattle Symphony, the Western Australian Symphony Orchestra. and Adelaide Symphony Orchestra, and solo recitals at York Early Music Festival, London Handel Festival, Händel-festspiele Halle. Korčula Baroque Festival, Leicester International Music Festival, and Fitzrovia Festival.

Thomas Elwin (tenor) studied at the Royal Academy of Music, the Solti Accademia Bel Canto, and the Verbier Academy, and was a member of the opera studio at Oper Stuttgart. Recent and future engagements include Ferrando for Staatstheater Stuttgart and English Touring Opera (ETO), Don Ottavio for English National Opera, Jacquino for the Landestheater Bregenz, Rodolfo for ETO

Mhairi Lawson

Helen Charlston

Thomas Elwin

Seán Boylan

Ben McAteer

and Sam Kaplan for Oper Köln. Northern Irish baritone. Ben McAteer is a In concert he performs extensively as a soloist former winner of Les Azuriales' Opera prize. across the UK and Europe performing the Guildhall School's English song prize and repertoire including both Bach Passions, Northern Ireland Opera's inaugural Festival Handel's Messiah. Britten's Serenade. of Voice. Notable operatic roles include Haydn's The Creation, Mozart's Requiem, Falke Die Fledermaus and Goryanchikov and Beethoven's Symphony No. 9. From the House of the Dead (Welsh Thomas has an extensive recital repertoire National Opera). Papageno The Magic and has appeared at the Oxford Lieder Flute and Marullo Rigoletto (Northern Festival, Song in the City, and the London Ireland Opera). Sharpless Madama Butterfly (Opera Holland Park), Earl of Mountararat Song Festival. Iolanthe (English National Opera), Count Soprano Mhairi Lawson's recent and future Almaviva Le Nozze di Figaro (Irish National highlights include performances of Purcell's Opera), Pangloss & Voltaire Candide (West The Fairy Queen and King Arthur with the Green Opera/Xi'an Symphony Orchestra), Gabrieli Consort, Purcell Songes & Ayres and and James in the world premiere of The Handel's Messiah with the Dunedin Consort, Devil Inside (Scottish Opera). Bach's St Matthew Passion with BBC National Orchestra of Wales, Diane/Daphne in Born in Londonderry in 1998, organist Charpentier's Acteon with the Early Opera Jack Wilson began his musical training as a Company, Haydn's The Creation with the chorister of the Cathedral Church of St Columb. Arctic Philharmonic, and regular residencies Londonderry. He is a graduate of The Queen's at the Carmel Bach Festival in the USA.

Recital engagements include songs from the British folksong tradition and Lieder

by Haydn, Mozart, Schubert, Schumann,

Edinburgh Festival, Newcastle and York

Strauss, and Wolf, with appearances in the Universities, and recordings for BBC Radio 3.

University of Belfast and completed the MMus in Choral Studies at the University of Cambridge, Jack held the posts of Organ Scholar, Acting Assistant Organist, and most recently Assistant Director of Music Belfast Cathedral, where he was principal accompanist for all cathedral services, studying the organ with David Stevens and Matthew Owens, In-September of 2021, he took up the position of Graduate Organ Scholar at Ely Cathedral.

also a prize-winning Fellow of the Royal College of Organists. He moved to Dublin in 1997 Belfast Cathedral Choir Choral music has always played a significant and central role at Belfast Cathedral, since

David Leigh is the Organist of St Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, where, in addition to presiding at the Willis organ, he runs the musical director of the University of Dublin

Schola (Senior Girls' Choir). He is also

Choral Society, Culwick Choral and of chamber choir, The Gaudete Singers. He maintains a busy freelance career as an organ recitalist, choral and orchestral

Festival

conductor, and keyboard player, and is David was educated at Bolton School.

Lancashire and Oxford University and is currently Artistic Director of the Pipeworks

Since then, the choir has undergone various transformations, most latterly in the late summer of 2019, when it became an all-adult, professional vocal ensemble.

its consecration in 1904, when there was a cathedral choir of forty-eight voices (ladies.

gentlemen, and twenty-four boy choristers).

This 'new' cathedral choir brings together some of the finest singers in Northern

Under the direction of Matthew Owens, who took up the post of Director of Music in September 2019, the choir has sung a wide and diverse range of works from the mediaeval period through to the present day, including world premiere performances of works by Judith Bingham, the late John Joubert, and Philip Stopford. A number of world premiere performances of Ireland who lead the liturgy and worship of Belfast Cathedral, known locally as 'St Anne's'.

began as Belfast Cathedral's first ever Composer-in-Association, in September 2021. Under Owens the cathedral choir has broadcast (live and recorded) on both BBC Radio 4 and BBC Radio Ulster. The choir.

records exclusively for Resonus Classics.

newly composed works for the Cranmer

Anthem Book are scheduled in 2022, by

Richard Allain, Luke Bedford, Michael

Berkeley, Richard Causton, Naji Hakim,

Gabriel Jackson, Philip Moore, and Philip

Stopford, In addition, Howard Skempton

Matthew Owens (conductor)

Matthew Owens became Director of Music at Belfast Cathedral in September 2019 where he leads the fully professional, all adult choir of Northern Ireland's national cathedral. Later in 2019 he founded the Ulster Consort, a new professional vocal and instrumental ensemble for Northern Ireland, Previously, he had been Organist and Master of the Music at St Mary's Episcopal Cathedral, Edinburgh (1999-2004). and Organist and Master of the Choristers at Wells Cathedral (2005-2019). Under his leadership. Wells Cathedral Choir was named by an international jury for Gramophone as the best choir in the world with children, and the sixth greatest overall. Matthew served as President of the Cathedral Organists' Association (2010–2013): he was made an Honorary Fellow of the Guild of Church Musicians in 2012: and in 2017 he was made a Prebendary (Canon) of Wells Cathedral 'for outstanding service' to the Diocese and the Cathedral He was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts in 2020.

Matthew was educated at Chetham's School of Music, Manchester; The Queen's College, Oxford; the Royal Northern College of Music; and the Amsterdam Conservatorium. Studying with Gordon Stewart, Margaret Phillips, and Jacques van Oortmerssen, he won all the major prizes in the diplomas of the Royal College of Organists and the Silver Medal of the Worshipful Company of Musicians.

He has guest conducted, among others, the London Mozart Players, English Symphony Orchestra, Southern Sinfonia, Scottish Ensemble, Nash Ensemble, Brook Street Band, and the Hungarian National Philharmonic Orchestra. As a conductor he has made over thirty albums with major labels, and now records exclusively for the award-winning label, Resonus Classics. Matthew has directed choral workshops and summer schools throughout the UK and abroad including Australia, China, Germany, Hong Kong, Luxembourg, New Zealand, and the USA.

He has championed new music, particularly of British composers, conducting over 200 world premieres, including works by leading composers ranging from Jools Holland to Sir James MacMillan, and John Rutter to Sir Peter Maxwell Davies. He is Director of the Cranmer Anthem Book (launched in 2017); a project that will set all eighty-eight Collects from the Book of Common Prayer to music, by some of the world's finest composers. As a composer himself, Matthew is published by Oxford University Press, Novello, and the Royal School of Church Music.

Belfast Cathedral Choir

Soprano

Lynda Barrett (Servant-girl One) ^{1, 2, 4, 10} Ali Darragh (Servant-girl Two) ^{1, 2, 4, 10} Susie Hunter Susan Shepherd (Pilate's Wife) ^{1, 2, 13}

Alto

Jenny Bourke India Chapman Webb Tania Murphy Elspeth Orr ²

Tenor

Chris Fitzgerald-Lombard (guest singer)
Caolan Keaveney ⁴
Owen Lucas ²
Matthew Quinn

Bass

Ethan Darby
Ryan Garnham (High Priest)
Adam Reaney
Samuel Quartermaine Smith

Acknowledgements

With enormous thanks and gratitude to Mr Cameron Marshall and Professor Philip Wilby for their generous financial support in the making of this recording.

More titles from Resonus Classics

A Belfast Christmas Belfast Cathedral Choir, Matthew Owens (conductor) RES10292

'Owens ensures that the acoustic of Belfast Cathedral contributes to the seasonal joy of the music.' The Sunday Times

Invisible Cities:

Choral & Electronic Music by Marco Galvani SANSARA, Tom Herring (artistic director & conductor) RES10280

'The choir brilliantly communicates the humanity of the music' Choir & Organ

© 2022 Resonus Limited

P 2022 Resonus Limited

2022 Resonus Limited
 Recorded in Belfast Cathedral on 29–30 June 2021

by kind permission of the Dean and Board of Belfast Cathedral.

Producer, engineer & editor: Adam Binks

Recorded at 24-bit/96kHz resolution

Cover image: Titanic Pall (2012), Belfast Cathedral. Photography: Matthew Owens

RESONUS LIMITED – UK

info@resonusclassics.com www.resonusclassics.com