ecohero

We are a group of motivated people who understand that by creating a balance between humans and nature, present and future life on planet earth can be the true paradise we are all striving for. Our mission is to satisfy the human needs of the 21st century without sacrificing modern-day comfort, by providing sustainable alternatives to day-to-day products.

Our vision is to be a sustainable network dedicated to protecting the environment, the animals, and people's health through the promotion of usage of sustainable products and by manufacturing locally to introduce economic benefits to those more in need. We are situated worldwide, but source our beautiful products from Bali, Indonesia. We believe that through stronger cooperation with mother earth, everyone can be an ecohero.
