

YQ MAGAZINE

May 07 - Issue 14

trends Beauty

Enhancing your outer soul will not solve the meaning of life but it usually adds a bit of confidence and puts a positive glow on the world. Here are a few products that could lighten up your day

Words: Kerry Spencer

Fendi Palazzo, Eau de Parfum, £48, Selfridges
Launched in Selfridges on August 30, the new Fendi fragrance is the latest luxury scent to come from this Italian design house.

Perfect C Breast Enhancer, three month supply of 270 capsules, £199, available via mail-order on 0845 070 8090

Perfect C, rumoured to have been used by Sienna Miller, is designed to enhance women's breasts. These capsules come in a three month supply, offering a safe, painless, non-surgical solution with long-lasting results. Each Perfect C capsule contains all thirteen of nature's most effective breast tissue growth promoting botanicals.

Nads Facial Wand, £9.99, available at Boots stores nationwide

Summer is over; however that's no excuse to let the facial fuzz grow back. All year attention should be given to ladies with a tendency to have unwanted facial hair. Try Nads latest trend, their facial wand.

Talika heated eyelash curler, £20, available from Selfridges

The ultimate must-have eyelash enhancer, Talika's Heated Eyelash Curlers double the curve of your eyelashes in 15 seconds and come attractively made to match.

Lemon Detox, 1 Litre, £39.99, available via mail-order on 0191 291 3385

A craze started by Beyoncé while filming Dreamgirls in 2006, the Lemon Detox or syrup detox as it is often referred to, is a safe and natural detox with no preservatives or chemical processes, allowing the body to cleanse itself naturally of accumulated toxins.

