

Tech A and AAA Workday Responsibilities

Technician A - Body

- Competence in all B-Level Technician requirements
- Skilled craftsman and welder in Full-Frame Repairs and Sectioning , Unibody Structural Repairs
- Oversees 1 or more technicians or apprentices.
- Advanced corrosion protection and expert in self-piercing riveting process (SPR).
- Ability to effectively manage and run a team of repair professionals
- Ability to repair crashed alternative fuel vehicles and advanced material panel replacement.
- Aluminum Structural repair and replacement
- Expert in automotive systems and diagnostics
- ASE Master Auto Collision Repair Technician at least 2 years experience.
- I-CAR Pro-Level 2 and 3 Structural Repair Technician
- I CAR WQT Aluminum Welding Certification

Technician AAA - Body

- Competence in all A-Level Technician requirements
- Top Performing Tech in the Industry, generating 400-500 hours per month.
- Oversees 2 or more technicians or apprentices

Charlie Robertson

Program Breakdowns

Tech A and AAA Workday Responsibilities

- Strive to improve efficiencies of the production team and increase profitability.
- Actively participates in training opportunities and stays in front of new and changing technology
- Effectively supervises, trains and develops technicians and apprentices through guidance and hands-on training
- Actively improves repair techniques and delegates responsibilities to team specialists
- ASE Master Automotive Mechanic (A1-A8) with two years mechanic experience