THE GREAT TURKEY TROT

It was the night before Thanksgiving when Tucker the turkey turned to his LEFT and said to his friend, Tia the turkey, "We should run to the Great Turkey Trot tomorrow morning. What better way to start our day off RIGHT." Tia gobbled and responded RIGHT back to Tucker: "Turkey trots aren't for turkeys; they're for humans." RIGHT after the words LEFT her beak she thought, "Wait a second, it's not a human trot, it's a turkey trot!" That LEFT Tia no option but to sign RIGHT up. Tucker gobbled with excitement and signed up RIGHT after. Tucker was so excited he jumped RIGHT up and said, "I need to go get a pair of shoes for the big race tomorrow." Tia was LEFT in shock with her beak wide open. "We are turkeys, Tucker. We don't wear shoes. We can run without them." "RIGHT, RIGHT", Tucker said, not sure what he was thinking. Tucker LEFT Tia's house so he could get a good night of sleep before the big race. He made a LEFT out of the driveway, a LEFT on Acorn Avenue, another LEFT on Blessing Boulevard and a final LEFT at his Turkey Estate. He jumped RIGHT in bed and fell RIGHT asleep. Tomorrow wasn't just Thanksgiving, it was also the Great Turkey Trot! The sun rose RIGHT up and LEFT no darkness in Tucker's room. It was Thanksgiving! He LEFT his house, made a RIGHT onto Stuffing Street, a LEFT onto Pumpkin Place and arrived at the race. Tucker was LEFT gobbleless. He had never seen so many humans in one place before. His head and beard dropped RIGHT to the ground when he realized he was the only turkey at the whole trot...until he saw Tia to his LEFT. He picked his head RIGHT up and ran RIGHT over to her. "We are the only turkeys in this whole race!" There was no time LEFT to talk, the race was starting. 3...2...1...Go! Tucker and Tia ran as fast as they could. Making a RIGHT here and a RIGHT there. A LEFT here and a LEFT there. Then they saw the finish line RIGHT ahead. They crossed the line and the whole crowd went wild. Then RIGHT after they heard on the loud speaker, "Congratulations to Tucker and Tia, the first turkeys ever to complete the Great Turkey Trot." They were RIGHT, turkeys could run the turkey trot. Happy Thanksgiving!
