

Congratulations

on being named a 2023 Global Media Award Winner!

NextLED

is among an elite group of companies to receive a Global Media Award at the 2023 SEMA Show.

An esteemed panel of international judges have selected the product below to be recognized.

The voting panel reviewed nearly 3,000 new products that were featured at this year's SEMA Show. Each journalist selected 10 products that would be of most interest to their publications' readers and most likely succeed commercially in their respective countries.
