

KITCHEN

The Arts and Crafts house has been given modern decorative flourishes. Here, they include the sunshine yellow island and deep green cabinetry. A circular table is perfect for family-style suppers.

Island in Gamboge, Paint & Paper Library. Cabinetry in Studio Green, Farrow & Ball. Pendant light (above table), The French House

DINING ROOM

Tess Newall painted the architrave around the door to the dining room, which features a long table in front of a woodburning stove and contemporary metal-framed doors that open out onto the terrace. Table: J&L Brown

SITTING ROOM

The wood panelling has been painted a light colour. 'We wanted to keep the formal feeling but brighten the space up,' says Bunny.

Dan Pearson, Dierama pulcherrimum print by Kate Friend, Lyndsey Ingram gallery. Marple sofa, Arlo & Jacob

DRINKS ROOM

A little area connecting the dining and drawing rooms is used as a drinks pantry. 'We had to be clever about this space as it is a transitional space,' says Bunny. 'We painted it bright red to make it feel completely different and play into Kate's love of colour.'

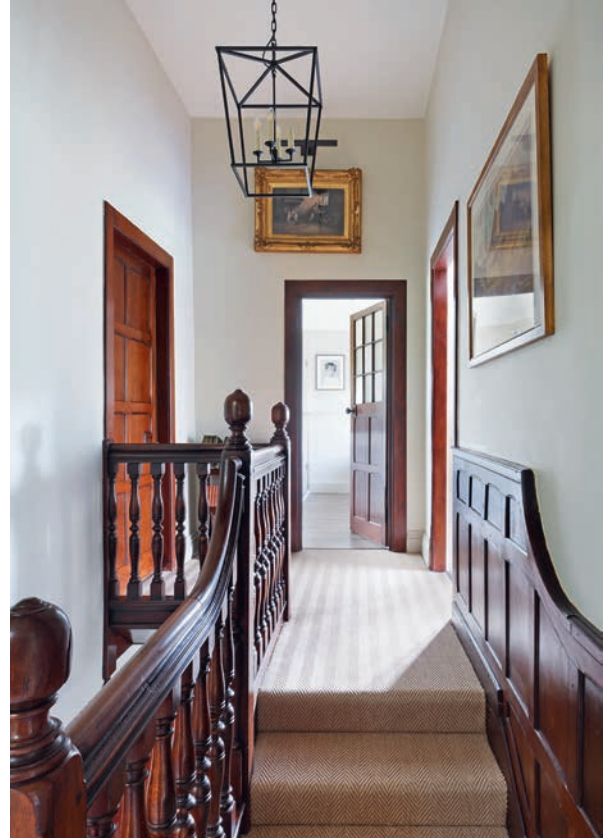

Walls and joinery in

Eating Room Red,
Farrow & Ball

LANDING

Dark wood bannisters and door frames contrast with the pale walls and a black lantern light bridges the gap between traditional and modern styling.

Try Neptune for a similar pendant light

MAIN BEDROOM

The design for the wallpaper came from an original chinoiserie paper that adorned the walls of the Stoke House of Newark in the 18th century and features bamboo foliage interspersed with birds and butterflies.

Walzin Chinoiserie wallpaper in Algrave, Watts 1874

SON'S BEDROOM

A bedroom for Kate's youngest son has a built-in bunk bed, decorated by Tess Newall, with storage underneath. 'It creates a magical environment to sleep in,' says Emma.

Try Vinterior for a similar vintage rattan chair

MEET THE DESIGNER

Bunny Turner shares her style inspiration

BIGGEST SUCCESS The flow between the rooms; it's challenging to have both open plan and delineation between the kitchen and dining room.

GREATEST INDULGENCE The Tess Newall decorative painting; it's definitely a luxury but it has transformed the house.

YOUR STYLE IN THREE WORDS

Comfortable, practical and joyful.

NAME TO WATCH

Kate Loudoun Shand of KLS Textiles.

SECRET ADDRESS Penny Worrall, who makes beautiful vintage cushions that we use a lot, either at the start of a scheme or as a finishing touch.

LAST ITEM YOU BOUGHT FOR YOUR HOME An antique Austrian marriage chest from Hám Interiors.

