FUTURE

LIVING WITH TEGU

Each hand-finished Tegu Block is 100% unique and will have slight variations in appearance and color, just like you. Also, since Tegu Blocks are wooden, bumps and bruises will appear over time, and that's perfectly natural. After all, a well-worn set of blocks is a telltale sign of a healthy imagination!

Here's how to make sure your blocks have a long and healthy life of building:

Keep Tegu Blocks dry

Clean with damp cloth if needed

Play with other magnetic things!

L♥VING WITH TEGU

Not only do we take great care in making your blocks, we also care about doing so responsibly. All of our wood is sourced sustainably, and we plant new trees to ensure this beautiful and valuable resource is carefully renewed. In our mission, we are committed to the people and country of Honduras, where your magical blocks are made. By providing living wage jobs, we are working to create a brighter future. Thank you for joining us to make this possible!
