Welcome to Keplin Group

We Know Brands, We Know Products,
We know the ISSUES you face.

And we're here to share our expertise and experience.

At Keplin, we're not just familiar with brands and products; we intimately understand the challenges you encounter.

Drawing from our extensive experience, we've successfully created and launched over 17 consumer brands, each experiencing rapid growth and accumulating an impressive 250,000 reviews. We've navigated the same direct-to-consumer landscape, sharing in your history, pitfalls, and problems.

Kidoola

Our curated product ranges are a result of learning from our own mistakes and understanding the desires of our customers. We recognise that consumers seek feature-rich, quality products from trusted brands, all at a compelling price. This insight informs our commitment to providing YOU with well-designed, tested, compliant, and reliable products. When partnering with Keplin, you can trust that the brand is not only established but also respected and reviewed, ensuring a secure sales channel with reliable sales projections.

But we offer more than just exceptional products. As your B2B partner in the new era of e-commerce (eComm 2.0), we've evolved to provide a comprehensive suite of services for your growing business.

Whether you need white-label solutions, sourcing assistance, cost-effective access to shipping lanes, warehousing, storage, repackaging, or streamlined logistics to we've got you covered.

Furthermore, we're equipped to elevate your sales strategy. From optimising your online listings and advertising to reducing your ACOS and TACOS, we can enhance your overall branding with PPC and brand-building services. Let's have a conversation—discover how Keplin can be the catalyst for your e-commerce success.

Raman Mehra

CEO at Keplin Group Limited

Embarking on my eCommerce venture during university, I turned a passion for direct-to-consumer sales into a thriving business with a £2 million turnover by the end of my third year, all while successfully earning my degree.

However, I've faced the familiar challenges – fierce competition, listing issues, and unforeseen setbacks.

Through these experiences, Keplin Group has evolved into a £20 million+ powerhouse, boasting 17 rapidly growing consumer brands, over 50 dedicated staff members, and a lineup of 100's of meticulously tested and compliant products, supported by a growing base of 250,000 reviews.

Having navigated the ups and downs, we've gained valuable insights, uncovered effective strategies, and accumulated a wealth of knowledge. Now, we're extending our expertise to B2B clients. Whether you're interested in our brands, seeking assistance with product design and sourcing, or looking for support in short-term storage and event marketing, Keplin Group is here for you.

Explore our comprehensive catalogue and don't hesitate to reach out. We're eager to connect, listen, provide advice, and turn your vision into reality.

Welcome to Keplin Group – a journey fuelled by passion and entrepreneurship that I hope to share with you. //
