About the Producer

Located in the central highlands of Papua New Guinea, the Simbu province is the third largest coffee producing region in the country, providing livelihoods for roughly 300,000 locals.

We are proud to have partnered with one of PNG's top producers, Jerry Kapka, founder of Kongo Coffee. Jerry has been pivotal to the continual improvement of Simbu's coffee quality, supporting growers through fair pricing as well as access to education on plant maintenance.

Jerry's positive relationship has expanded to the local community through the establishment of the Jerry Kapka Foundation, where a portion of Kongo Coffee's profits are channeled into community advancement projects. The worthy causes each year include funding schools that make education accessible for all, hospitals that provide complex medical procedures and medicine for women and children, and the introduction of youth groups.

Kongo A coffee is high quality coffee from the region that has gone through a complex sorting process, to limit inconsistency and ensure uniformity in the cup.

Simbu is prized for its unique profile, bringing crisp acidity, well refined fruit tones and a sweet finish.
