The Mossop Philosophy
Heart Lock Theory Phytob Heart Power

The Heart Lock Theory The rule of the 64 changes. Constitution and PhytobHeartPower formulas

A remarkable and moving means of assessing the experiences throughout the journey of life which impact on peoples lives and health.

The Heart is capable of storing memories of events, experiences or trauma whether they are of a physical, emotional, mental or spiritual nature.

Memories can trigger physiological responses.

The fact that the heart is most closely involved with the prime distributor of neurotransmitters (the bloodstream) throughout the body could be the main reason for its amazing ability to store this information.
