

GLASS TIGER

And so it continues...the story of one of Canada's most enduring and iconic bands, Glass Tiger, roars on.

Originally known as Tokyo, the band formed in Newmarket, Ontario in 1981 and spent several years cutting their teeth in the bar scene of the day. With rapidly growing popularity, it didn't take long for all the major record labels to come courting, culminating in their signing of a world-wide recording deal with Capitol Records in 1985.

Changing their name to Glass Tiger, their debut album, The Thin Red Line quickly became an unstoppable force, rocketing up the charts to become the fastest selling debut in Canadian history, spawning no less than five hit singles. Leading the charge, was the now-and-forever iconic, "Don't Forget Me (When I'm Gone)", a song that is etched into the very fabric of popular music's history. The iconic song along with another hit single, "Someday", both reached Top 10 on the Billboard Charts in the U.S and contributed to The Thin Red Line going quadruple platinum in Canada and gold in the United States.

Grammy nominated and 5x award winners of both The Junos and Canadian Classic, the band has sold 5 million albums worldwide, and shared stages and recording performances with some of the world's leading acts including; Rod Stewart, Tina Turner, Bryan Adams, Journey, Julian Lennon, and Cheap Trick (to name a few).

In 2019 Glass Tiger released 33. Produced by Glass Tiger founding member Sam Reid and UK, singer, songwriter, Andrew Cole, 33 is an unapologetically raw, mature, eclectic, statement that states simply: "This is who we are today and this is how we see the world around us."

From the rough and tumble, rebellious, "This is London", a throwback to their "bar days" when you simply picked up a guitar, started a band, and made raucous loud music, to the ethereal nature of pop with tracks such as, "This is Your Life" and "Keepers of Time", this EP is, without a doubt, what Glass Tiger fans have been anxiously awaiting for over two decades.

October 30, 2020 – Glass Tiger released their first Christmas/Holiday offering in 34 years titled, Songs for A Winter's Night. The album is a collection of songs written by Glass Tiger along with a cover of Gordon Lightfoot's "A Song for A Winter's Night."

Songs for A Winter's Night sees the band joined by such timeless artists as Natalie MacMaster, Isabel Bayrakdarian, and the Steve Sidwell Orchestra. Legendary singer/songwriter Gordon Lightfoot makes an appearance to voice a very special poem written by lead singer Alan Frew, "Ode For A Winter's Night." Songs for a Winter's Night is heralded by the lead single "Happy Holidays" featuring the inimitable Roch Voisine.

Glass Tiger continues to tour and play for enthusiastic audiences from coast-to-coast. In September of 2023, Glass Tiger was inducted into Canada's prestigious Walk of Fame at a star-studded ceremony at Toronto's Iconic Massey Hall.

glasstiger.ca

For further information contact: Andrew

Turner

Enlightened Management

(416) 888-9307

andrew@enlightenedmanagement.com

Discography:

Thin Red Line

Released: September 18, 1986

Radio Singles:

Don't Forget Me (When I'm Gone)

Someday

You're What I Look For

Thin Red Line

I Will Be There

Diamond Sun

Released: April 13, 1988

Radio Singles:

I'm Still Searching

Diamond Sun

(Watching) Worlds Crumble

My Song (with The Chieftains)

Simple Mission

Released: March 22, 1991

Radio Singles:

My Town (with Rod Stewart) Animal Heart

Rhythm Of Your Love

Rescued (By The Arms Of Love)

Airtime (Greatest Hits)

Released: October 26, 1993

No Turning Back (20th Anniversary Release CD/DVD)

Released: October 26, 2004

Retro Much Music – Live In Concert DVD (1986 Ontario Place Concert)

Released: September 19, 2006

The Thin Red Line (Anniversary Edition)

Released: June 19, 2012

Then Now Next - Biggest hits past, present & future.

Released: August 21, 2012

“31” – Glass Tiger’s most iconic songs re-imagined with special guests.
Featuring Julian Lennon, Susan Akglukark, Johnny Reid & Véronic DeCaire

Released: February 16, 2018 (Halo/Warner Music Canada)

“33” – EP release featuring 6 new studio tracks. Etc Etc

Released: May 17, 2019 ((Willow Music/Warner Music Canada)

“Songs For A Winter’s Night” – Christmas/Holiday release featuring guest artists, Gordon Lightfoot, Roch Voisine, Natalie MacMaster, Isabel Bayraydarian and Steve Sidwell

Released Oct 20, 2020 (Willow Music/Warner Music Canada)

For further information contact: Andrew

Turner

Enlightened Management

(416) 888-9307

andrew@enlightenedmanagement.com