

Service
Dogs

Emotional
Support
Animals

Therapy
Dogs

Protected by federal law under the ADA to accompany their disabled owner in public establishments (e.g. stores, restaurants, etc.)
Primary function is to provide companionship and emotional support for their disabled owner
Temperament tested to tolerate a wide variety of experiences
Protected by federal law under the FHA to live with their disabled owner regardless of a "No Pets" policy
Protected by federal law under the ACAA to travel with their disabled owner on an airplane*
Specially trained to perform specific tasks that mitigate their owner's disability
Provides comfort and emotional support for many people in authorized settings

*Restrictions apply