PEMBROKE PINES, FL, APRIL 5, 2013 - Journey through time and discover the history of jazz through the adventures of Kayla and Eli in Kayla & Eli Discover Jazz by Stephan Earl (published by SearlStudio Kids).

While spending a day at the park with their mom, Kayla and her little brother Eli hear jazz music for the first time. Intrigued by the music, they dash toward the band for a closer look and encounter a mysterious person who takes them on a magical tour through time to discover jazz for themselves.

"I wrote this children's book because I wanted a fun way to introduce my baby girl to a style of music that has absolutely enriched my life - jazz," says Stephan.

From Dixieland and Big Band Swing, to Bebop and Latin Jazz Fusion; Kayla & Eli Discover Jazz introduces kids to the pinnacle periods of jazz - America's classical music.

About Stephan Earl: Stephan Earl is passionate about music and has been since the age of 12 when he first learned to play the clarinet in his home town of New York. Stephan currently resides in Boynton Beach, Florida with his wife and daughter.

About SearlStudio Kids: SearlStudio Kids publishes books for children that enrich their lives through discovery of the arts and the exploration of their inner creativity. Through great stories, we want to inspire Kids to discover, imagine and create; while learning good values of applying hard work to achieve their dreams.

Available on Amazon in hardcover and Kindle formats, and on the Apple iBookstore as a read-aloud interactive edition.

The iBooks edition features read to me narration, music illustrations of each period in jazz mentioned in the book, "Discover" buttons for additional jazz facts, and music and jazz related puzzles and quizzes.
