PEMBROKE PINES, FL, SEPTEMBER 12, 2014 - Tupi Finds His Tune by Stephan Earl (published by [SearlStudio Kids](http://SearlStudio Kids)), is a bi-lingual book written in English and Spanish. It helps children 0 to 3 years old learn that creativity comes from within.

It's carnival time and young Tupi awakes to the sights and sounds of celebration! But when Tupi tries to join in the singing and dancing, he can't seem to find his tune. Soon, Tupi begins a quest for his tune and learns that creativity comes from inside.

"One day, Tupi the toucan awakes from his afternoon nap. He hears music, and remembers..."

It's carnival time! The rainforest is alive with singing and celebration."

"Un día, Tupi, el tucán, despierta de su siesta en la tarde. En eso oye música y recuerda..."

¡Es hora del carnaval! La selva vive con los cantos y la celebración."

About Stephan Earl: Stephan Earl is passionate about music and has been since the age of 12 when he first learned to play the clarinet in his home town of New York. Stephan currently resides in Boynton Beach, Florida with his wife and daughter.

About SearlStudio Kids: SearlStudio Kids publishes books for children that enrich their lives through discovery of the arts and the exploration of their inner creativity. Through great stories, we want to inspire Kids to discover, imagine and create; while learning good values of applying hard work to achieve their dreams.
