

SCANDINAVIAN SUMMER

Let the Scandinavian summer embrace you with all its power and grace. Inspired by the timeless beauty of nature, we welcome you into a Nordic universe filled with interior products that inspire and create time for reflection and well-being.

Cushions and throws in new colour combinations and with graphic twists, kitchenware in beautiful marble and elegant storage solutions are just a few of the many tactile creations in the new collection.

Eminent quality, functionality and aesthetics mixed with a sense of pure well-being are in focus and presented in the context of a Scandinavian summer you will never forget.

Welcome to Mette Ditmer's universe.

Soft stripes

Embrace bold designs with the new series of RETRO throws in five unique colour combinations. With their diagonal striped look, the throws add personality to your home and can be used in the living room or on the terrace. Warmth and softness also characterize the colourful throws, which can be mixed and matched with existing home textiles.

The RETRO throws are made from 100% acrylic, making them an excellent choice for people with allergies.

Two in one

The ACROSS cushion covers are made from a high-quality kilim weave that adds texture and extra softness to the fabric. The calm yet bold and iconic colour combinations fill the room with warmth and inspiration, and the soft material invites you to cosy up on the sofa or armchair. The mix of narrow and wide stripes creates a delicate play of colour, and the double-faced design makes it easy to change the look of your home.

Mix and match the cushion covers with others in the same style or combine them with solid-coloured cushions to create your own distinctive look.

Minimalistic statement

Shape, material and aesthetics go hand in hand in the beautiful Artistic vase. Based on Mette Ditmer's own hand-formed ceramic creations, the vase's tactile surface and significant volume make it the perfect statement piece. Whether presented alone or with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, the vase will add eye-catching character to your home.

Part of the ART PIECE collection, the vase is made from stone resin and is available in two subtle shades for a calm and natural look. During production, the vase is finalized by hand after molding, making each piece unique.

Relaxed cosiness

Create a relaxing oasis with the BOHEMIA throws from Mette Ditmer. Made from OEKO-TEX® 100-certified cotton and created with a keen eye for details, the tactile look of the throws adds plenty of timeless and relaxed charm to your home décor. The combination of calm, muted colours, a lightweight material and a contrasting-coloured border creates a unique experience, with the delicate fringes adding the finishing touch.

When aesthetics meet functionality

Give your floors a versatile and stylish upgrade with Mette Ditmer's new ALL-ROUND mats and runners in the SQUARE design. The mats and runners are made from a durable nylon pile and have a PVC-free non-slip rubber back.

Designed with a classic square pattern and adorned with iconic details in unexpected yet carefully chosen colours, the mats add edge and personality to your décor. Use them in the hallway, by the garden door or in the bathroom and enjoy the fact that they can be easily cleaned at 40°C gentle cycle in the washing machine.

A graphic touch

The MARKER mats add a modern and graphic look to the practical mat. Subtle light grey and cognac shades combined with exquisite details in unexpected yet thoughtfully chosen colours make the mats suitable for any room. The mats add warmth and style to any floor surface and effectively absorb dirt and moisture. When needed, they can be easily cleaned at 40°C gentle cycle in the washing machine.

Timeless symmetry

Created to be both an aesthetic and practical element in your home décor, the FLEX rack embraces timeless design. The traditional scissor coat rack has been given a modern update and is crafted from oak.

With 10 hooks, the rack can be used for everything from bags, jackets and hats in the hallway to towels in the bathroom. The adjustable length of up to 105 cm allows the FLEX rack to hang in exactly the place you want. The oak construction ensures that each coat rack is unique with variations in colour, knots and grain patterns.

Characteristic design object

Elegance meets functionality in the new SHOWCASE set box. Crafted from oak in a rich dark nuance and with finger-joint corners, it gives both a practical and aesthetic touch to the home. The open design provides a lightweight feel and lets the colour of the wall shine through, allowing the set box to effortlessly blend in with the décor and style of every room.

With 12 square rooms, each measuring 12 x 12 cm, there is room for many beautiful presentations. Perfect in the kitchen for your favorite mugs and glasses, in the office for small items and in the bathroom for must-haves. The solid oak wood provides plenty of character and ensures that each box is unique with variations in colour, knots and grain patterns. A distinctive and timeless design object for the home.

Stylish harmony

Simple elegance characterizes the new WENDY pedal bin in four neutral shades, perfect for the bathroom. The practical bin is made of metal and adds plenty of character to the room with its elongated shape. The plastic insert makes emptying the bucket easy and the soft close mechanism ensures a silent closure.

The WALTHER pedal bin is now available in a nice and subtle brown colour.

Exclusive marble

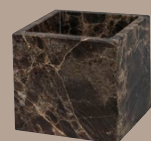

Bring luxurious vibes into your interior design with MARBLE cubes and trays for your home essentials.

With their exclusive look, both products add warmth to your surroundings. The stylish cubes can be used for coffee capsules and tea bags in the kitchen, cotton pads in the bathroom or for organization in the office. The MARBLE tray also works as a decorative element in any room. Use it for a still life in the living room with books and candleholders or for storing oils and spices in the kitchen.

Thanks to the natural stone's variations in colour and structure, each cube and tray is unique.

Kitchen luxury

The MARBLE adventure continues in Mette Ditmer's universe and ends in the world of the kitchen. Here you will find a dishwashing organizer, serving boards in two different sizes and a kitchen roll holder - all crafted from either a beautiful brown or black/gray marble.

With the practical and decorative dishwashing organizer, you can optimize the space around the sink. The robust and weighty construction of the kitchen roll holder ensures long-lasting durability, while the exclusive serving boards make serving tapas an extraordinary experience. As with the collection's MARBLE cubes and trays, you get unique products due to the natural material's distinctive colour and structure variations.

Colourful sets

Give your kitchen a stylish and colourful upgrade with Mette Ditmer's STRIPES tea towels and dish cloths, made from OEKO-TEX® 100-certified cotton. Both products come in sets of two and in two unique designs: one with distinct, wide stripes and the other with delicate, narrow stripes. The stripes add a dynamic touch and the style is completed with Mette Ditmer's characteristic twists in the form of contrasting labels and straps.

Tip: To maximise the absorbency of the tea towels and dish cloths, leave them in cold water for 24 hours before their first wash.

Choose between the colours mint, blush, sand and latte.
