How long should my order take to be delivered?

The delivery time to reach you is made up of the dispatch time plus the transit time.

- Dispatch time:
  - How long before it leaves Appetite's warehouse
  - Dispatch times are based on stock status
- Transit time:
  - How long it'll take to get to you once we hand it over to our courier partners
  - Transit times vary depending on where you live in South Africa

Stock status and dispatch times:

"In stock " — Leaves Appetite HQ within 48 hours. If you order before 14:00, it usually leaves our warehouse the same day.

Products that can dispatch immediately might look like this:

If you see a colour Arrangement similar to above, means that we're able to dispatch the colours that is not strikethrough immediately, because we have that many of the item in our warehouse. But if you need the colour that is strikethrough, that means we currently don't have the colour in stock, and it will take a bit longer to dispatch.
