

Hans Christian Andersen

Hans Christian Andersen was born in Denmark in 1805. He was a famous writer that is best known for his fairy tales. Some of his most famous fairy tales include The Princess and the Pea, The Little Mermaid, The Emperor's New Clothes, and The Ugly Duckling. During his life, he wrote many plays, novels, and poems. As a child, Andersen had a lot of difficulty making friends. In fact, Andersen said that his story "The Ugly Duckling" was based on his life experiences of feeling left out and bullied by others.
