

10~15T Franna Crane

- Built for loading and unloading container units
- Multiple cranes may be needed for larger units
- Essential for placement of units onto footings
- Not suitable for lifting over buildings or fences

Call (02) 4545 2599
www.hometechclub.au
sales@hometechclub.au

Large Hiab or Crane Truck

- Truck with crane on rear of vehicle; higher cost
- High capacity/load models essential for unit transport
- Load, transport and unload in a single vehicle
- Not suitable for lifting over buildings or fences

Call (02) 4545 2599
www.hometechclub.au
sales@hometechclub.au

Flatbed Truck (Various)

- The most cost effective method for long distance hauls
- Requires unloading via franna crane at destination
- 2x20ft units comfortably, 3x20ft units in some cases
- Essential for carrying units larger than 20ft length

Call (02) 4545 2599
www.hometechclub.au
sales@hometechclub.au

Tilt Tray Truck

- Truck with winch, bumps unit on and off vehicle
- Winch load/unload mechanism can be rough on units
- Cannot place on footings (slabs OK), crane required
- Not suitable for pop-up units (RUBY) due to width

