

Table of Contents

Section 1: Introduction to Documentation and Long-Term Care

- Documentation Defined
- Electronic Charting
- Documentation and the MDS
- The MDS 3.0 Collaboration
- Section G: Functional Status
- Section O: Special Treatments, Procedures, and Programs
- Section I: Active Diagnoses
- Resident Falls
- Section J: Health Conditions
- Benefits of Nursing and Therapy Collaboration
- Optimize Care and Resident Outcomes
- Survey Success
- Positive Working Environment
- Benefits of Collaboration

Section 2: Therapy Documentation

- Documentation to Support Skilled Therapy Services
- Five Criteria to Support Skilled Therapy Services
- Long-Term Goal Writing
- Short-Term Goal Writing
- Demonstrating Progress With Goal Achievement
- Daily Skilled Therapy Services
- Defensible Documentation Strategies
- Considerations for MDS 3.0 Documentation
- Considerations for Providing Therapy Under MDS 3.0
- Documenting Therapy Services
- The Plan of Care
- Completion of Section O, Item O0400
- Navigating the Medicare B Therapy Caps
- Exceeding the Therapy Cap
- Navigating the Threshold
- Internal Monitoring Program to Manage the Threshold

Section 3: Understanding Functional G Codes

- Reporting G Codes Throughout the Episode of Care
- Choosing a G Code
- Choosing a Severity Modifier

Section 4: The Appeals and Denials Process

- First Steps
- Redetermination: First Level of Appeal
- Reconsideration: Second Level of Appeal
- ALJ Level: Third Level of Appeal
- Appeals Council: Fourth Level of Appeal
- Judicial Review in U.S. District Court: Fifth Level of Appeal
- Just Remember

Section 5: Nursing Documentation

- Documentation to Support Skilled –Necessity
- Documenting Direct Skilled Nursing
- Documentation Tips
- A Restorative Nursing Introduction and Philosophy
- Restorative Nursing as a Daily Skilled Service
- Criteria for Coding Restorative Nursing on the MDS 3.0
- Setting Goals for Restorative Nursing
- Documenting Restorative Nursing
- Evaluating Restorative Nursing
- Implementing a Restorative Nursing –Program
- The Nursing and Therapy Connection With Restorative Nursing
- Designing Restorative Programs

Section 6: Improving Collaboration

- The Medicare Meeting
- RUG Huddle
- Prior Authorizations
- Therapy Screening and MDS 3.0
- Understanding the Nursing/Therapy Language Barrier
- Medicare Notice (BNI/ABN)
- QM as a Tool for Therapy and Nursing
- Five-Star Rating: Impact on Therapy
- Summary

Section 7: Using Collaboration for Quality Results and Limiting Lost Revenue

- Assessment Window
- Scheduled Medicare PPS Assessments
- Unscheduled Assessments
- Combining Scheduled and Unscheduled Assessments
- Unscheduled Assessments Other Medicare Required Assessments
- Missed Unscheduled Assessment
- Compounding Effects of Early/Late Assessment
- Short Stay MDS