

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Downloadable Resources

About the Authors

Acknowledgments

Foreword, by Steven T. DeKosky, M.D.

Preface

Introduction

- The Connections Approach
- Connections Field Testing

Chapter 1. Overview of the Connections Activity Program

- Connections Activity Intervention Process and Tools

Chapter 2. Preparing for a Successful First Visit

- Understanding Dementia
- A Person-Centered Approach
- Emotional Intelligence
- Communication through the Dementia Stages
- Planning for Successful Connections

Chapter 3. Making the Connection and Assessing the Person's Needs

- Conversation Starters
- Leisure Interest Survey
- Cognitive Function Checklist
- Information Summary

Chapter 4. Connections Activity Selection and Setup

- Selecting the Appropriate Activity
- Modifying the Environment
- Setting Up the Activity Center
- Setting Up the Central Organizer
- Using Central Organizers to Support People with Dementia

Chapter 5. Connections in Practice: Case Examples

- Case #1: Dr. Bikoff
- Case #2: Mrs. Matthews
- Case #3: Mr. Stuart

Chapter 6. Activity Intervention Guides

Appendix: Connections Activity Program Forms

- Leisure Interest Survey
- Cognitive Function Checklist
- Information Summary

References

Resources

