Made in Ireland

Welcome

At Aran Woollen Mills, our makers understand the beauty and importance of preserving the timeless Aran tradition. We appreciate the power and magic that occurs when creative minds get a chance to reinvent a classic and we recognise our role in protecting and supporting the earth and all of its resources.

We are delighted to present our latest collection of exclusive made in Ireland Aran knits as well as our hero collection of traditional Aran sweaters. Crafting knitwear and creating Aran wool products that carry the weight of the past and the present is no easy feat. That is why every member of the Aran Woollen Mills family and every step of the process is so highly valued and respected.

The Killary Collection

strikes the perfect balance between traditional and contemporary knitwear.

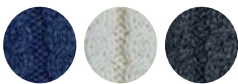

Each piece has been carefully crafted by our in-house design and manufacturing teams, who have been inspired by the mesmerising landscapes of the West of Ireland.
