

LAUREN BAKER

TEN DAYS OF SILENCE

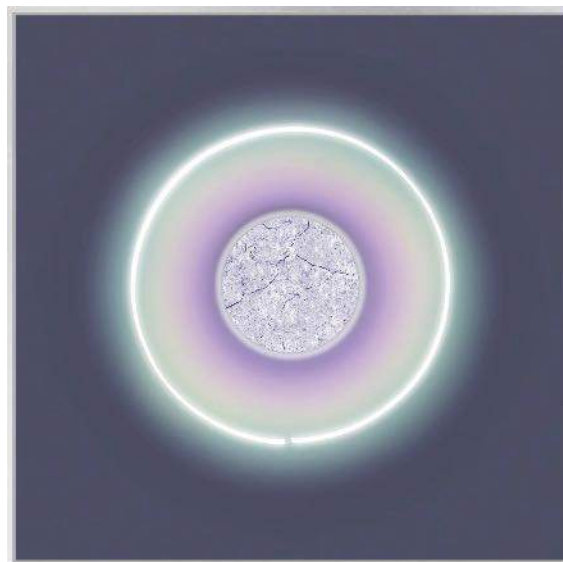

Lauren Baker is an experimental artist whose practice expands across multiple disciplines and mediums. Baker has been experimenting with light for several years and has developed a visual style that is often built around either emitting or reflecting light.

The artworks in 'Ten Days of Silence' are reflections of her experiences over ten days of silent meditation in Mexico. They are echoes of the artist's deep dive with the ego, an exploration of a path to enlightenment, a visual depiction of the energy of love in the form of love letters. She writes these love letters to her past and future lovers, to herself, to Earth, to the Universe. Baker will be revealing new works using neon light, mosaic, metal sculpture as well as works on canvas and print.
