Awards

2018

Gambero Rosso, Vini d'Italia 2021

Tre Bicchieri - Young and graceful, it's hugely drinkable and dynamic, juicy with perfect tannins. Delicious notes of red berry fruit.

Slow Food, Slow Wine 2021

Vino Slow - Playing with the balance between the two principle varieties for a wine of this type, Sangiovese and Sagrantino, in perfect harmony here between juiciness and freshness, intermingling on the palate in a long and pleasing finish.

2017

(First year of production)

Gambero Rosso, Vini d'Italia 2020

Tre Bicchieri - A graceful wine, of great aromatic complexity, enjoyable from the first to the last sip.

Slow Food, Slow Wine 2020

Vino Slow - Splendid interpretation of a wine of this type, all played on the dynamic between freshness and juiciness with a brightness of flavour at the fore. We hope it attracts lots of followers.

Vinous

92/100 - The 2017 Bellafonte Montefalco Rosso Pomontino is aromatically stunning, mixing peppery herbs and florals with notes of black olive, crushed cherries and savory spice. It reveals silky richness, which is quickly offset by zesty acids, as tart wild berry gives way to liquid florals, notes of white pepper and saline minerals. The finish is medium in length and wonderfully fresh, delivering a twang of tart fruits and hints of grippy tannin. I'm very excited to see what a couple of years in the cellar may reveal here, yet the Pomontino is already so easy to like.

James Suckling

91/100 - Quite bright and colorful for a Montefalco Rosso with citrus, raspberries and fresh redcurrants. Citrusy, medium-bodied and minerally on the fruity finish. Drink now.
