

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

GREG KINNEAR & CHUCK CECIL JOIN OSCAR DE LA HOYA & ALFONSO RIBEIRO FOR COLOGUARD CLASSIC “CELEBRITY CHALLENGE” ON SATURDAY, MARCH 2nd

Tucson, Ariz. (February 27, 2019) – Actor and University of Arizona graduate Greg Kinnear and former U of A and NFL football star Chuck Cecil will join former world champion boxer and current boxing promoter Oscar De La Hoya and actor/comedian Alfonso Ribeiro in the Cologuard Classic “Celebrity Challenge” on Saturday, March 2nd. Played during the second round of the PGA TOUR Champions event, the celebrity group will tee off prior to the first professional group of the day at 9:30 a.m. and play 9 holes. After a short break to allow the PGA TOUR Champions professionals to play through, the group will tee off on the back nine at approximately 2:30 p.m. The celebrities will compete for far more than pride and bragging rights, as a $50,000 donation will be made to the Colorectal Cancer Alliance in the name of the winner.

Kinnear has appeared in many popular movies, including Sabrina, You've Got Mail, Stuck on You, Little Miss Sunshine, Invincible, Green Zone, The Last Song and television roles, such as Friends, Talk Soup, The Kennedys, Modern Family and Rake. He was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor for his role in As Good as It Gets. Kinnear graduated from the U of A in 1985 with a degree in broadcast journalism. On the golf course, he is a 7-handicap.

Cecil, a former All-American and Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year while at the University of Arizona, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2009. He was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in the 4th round of the 1988 NFL draft and played a total of 8 years in the league for the Packers, Cardinals and Oilers. Cecil currently serves in a non-coaching position as senior defensive analyst at the U of A.

De La Hoya, also known as "The Golden Boy," won a gold medal at the 1992 Olympics at the age of 19 and went on to win 10 world titles in six different weight classes. De La Hoya was one of the most popular boxers in the history of the sport, generating hundreds of millions of dollars from his pay-per-view fights before his retirement in 2009. In 2002, De La Hoya founded Golden Boy Promotions, and in 2018, he became a mixed martial arts promoter. On the golf course, De La Hoya plays to a 10-handicap.

Best known for his role as Carlton Banks on the NBC sitcom The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air, Alfonso Ribeiro has enjoyed a prosperous acting career appearing in numerous television shows, including Silver Spoons and In the House. He is the host of ABC's America's Funniest Home Videos and won season 19 of Dancing with the Stars with professional partner Witney Carson. A self-proclaimed golf fanatic, Ribeiro is a scratch golfer and serves as a brand ambassador for PGA TOUR Champions.

Many of the top names on the PGA TOUR Champions are playing in the Cologuard Classic, including defending tournament champion Steve Stricker, Fred Couples, Miguel Angel Jiménez, Tom Lehman, Jerry Kelly, Scott McCarron, José María Olazábal and Darren Clarke. Hall-of-fame pitcher John Smoltz and two-time Major champion, John Daly both received sponsor exemptions and will play in the tournament.

The 2019 Cologuard Classic is being played this week (February 27 – March 3) at Omni Tucson National Resort and features a 78-player field competing for a $1.7 million purse with $255,000 and 255 Charles Schwab Cup points for the winner. The no-cut format includes three days of competition (Friday-Sunday) with players participating in pro-am events on Wednesday and Thursday. Tournament proceeds benefit youth athletic programs in Southern Arizona and colorectal cancer research and advocacy. For more information or tournament tickets, visit www.cologuardclassic.com.

2019 marks the second year of the Cologuard Classic, named after Wisconsin-based Exact Sciences' noninvasive at-home colon cancer screening test for average-risk individuals 50 years or older, and the fifth year the Conquistadores have partnered with the PGA TOUR Champions. To coincide with the kickoff of National Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month, tournament week will feature numerous events to raise awareness for the disease.

ABOUT COLOGUARD

Cologuard is intended for the qualitative detection of colorectal neoplasia associated DNA markers and for the presence of occult hemoglobin in human stool. A positive result may indicate the presence of colorectal cancer (CRC) or advanced adenoma (AA) and should be followed by diagnostic colonoscopy. Cologuard is indicated to screen adults of either sex, 50 years or older, who are at typical average-risk for CRC. Cologuard is not a replacement for diagnostic colonoscopy or surveillance colonoscopy in high risk individuals.

Cologuard is not for high risk individuals, including those with a history of colorectal cancer and advanced adenoma, a family history of colorectal cancer, IBD or certain hereditary syndromes. Positive Cologuard results should be referred to diagnostic colonoscopy. A negative Cologuard test result does not guarantee absence of cancer or advanced adenoma. Following a negative result, patients should continue participating in a screening program at an interval and with a method appropriate for the individual patient. Cologuard performance when used for repeat testing has not been evaluated or established. Rx only.

ABOUT PGA TOUR CHAMPIONS
