Who We Are

Scented Designs is a woman-owned & -operated small business in the heart of Silicon Valley, California. Although we are surrounded by big tech, we're all about small handmade.

We began in our kitchen in 2016, hand-pouring small batches of candles for family and friends. They encouraged us to sell at a local craft show or two, and pretty soon we were selling at every pop-up and market we could find.

Our candles can now be found in a variety of shops & gift boxes in the Bay Area and beyond. We've made thousands of candles for companies like PayPal for corporate gifts, and we've collaborated with a number of local businesses to create custom branded candles.

Please take a look and see how Scented Designs can bring some joy, light, and handmade goodness to you & your customers.

Love the thoughtful gift @paypal gave to us employees this year. Awesome smelling candles by @scenteddesignsbykate and a buttery soft blanket from @thelongestthread, both small businesses. So happy to be part of a company walking the walk 🧡
