Best of 2023 – Gifts with Game

These clever, innovative products have some serious game! If you're searching for the perfect gift with a little edge to it – something that sets the standard and then goes beyond it- this is the section for you!

- CrunchCup: Need your cereal but in a rush? That's where the CrunchCup comes in! It's cereal reimagined – because there are separate chambers for milk & cereal, making it EASY for you to eat cereal on the go! Talk about a game changer & awesome gift idea!
- gosili: These 16oz. reusable, silicone, stylish, comfortable travel cups are amazing! I love that my drinks stay cold or hot for longer, and since it's silicone, it's lightweight & easy to carry anywhere. There are lots of great color options & more awesome gosili silicone products to check out!
- DrySee Bandages: These are pretty genius & amazing! First, they are waterproof so moisture doesn't compromise the healing process. Plus, they are color-changing, so you know when it's time to change your bandage for quicker healing! Pretty smart, right?
- Enviro-Log: Ohhhh yeah! Check out the Enviro-Log Color-Flame – my latest obsession! These are such a fun way to add color to fire, making them magical! They can be used in your fireplace or outdoors, and last for up to an hour. This is a GREAT way to celebrate the season!
- Handzies: Sticky hands from cookie decorating & baking get EASY clean up with Handzies! Individually packaged & great for entertaining, gift baskets & stockings! These are soap + water wipes with none of the bad stuff. They even have tangerine scent now! As a preschool teacher, I use these DAILY in my classroom!
- The Sun and The Planets: For any kiddo obsessed with the solar system, this book is for them! It's filled with pop-ups, pull-outs, sliders, & foldouts. Plus, it's super interactive & offers amazing information so kids learn & play at the same time. It's REALLY fun!
