RICHELIEU

New in: Colour Powder Rose

Our Richelieu styles which are knitted on Lake Constance and sewn in Mendrisio have inspired aficionados of the finest craftsmanship all the way to Hollywood. The inimitable double rib, designed by founder Pauline Zimmerli over 150 years ago, still characterizes Zimmerli's unique identity today. The underwear and ready-to-wear tops, crafted from pure exquisite Pima cotton, are handmade in Switzerland and adorned with Eye-Lash lace.

The iconic Richelieu series, previously only available in black and white, now also flourishes in the feminine colour Powder Rose.
