

let it knit, let it purl, let it snow!

by suzanne middlebrooks

finished dimensions

9.5" wide x 46" circumference

yarn

Debbie Bliss Lara (58% Wool, 42% Alpaca; 65 yds / 100 g)

1 ball color 1 - Pasha (color A)

1 ball color 4 - Yuri (color B)

needles

US 17 (12.5mm) 32" circular needles

adjust needle size as necessary to obtain gauge.

gauge

6.5 sts x 12 rows = 4" x 4" in seed stitch.

notions

tapestry needle

directions

Cast on 75 stitches loosely with color A.
Begin working in seed stitch as follows:

Round 1: *K1, P1, repeat from * around

Switch to color B.

You will continue working this round of seed stitch, switching between color A and color B every 2 rounds. When you have completed 7 stripes of color A, switch to color B and work one round of seed stitch.

Bind off all stitches as follows:

*Knit two stitches together through the back loop, slip this stitch from your right hand needle back to your left hand needle, repeat from * until all your stitches are bound off.

Weave in ends and snuggle up in your new cowl!

Hill
Country
Weavers

www.hillcountryweavers.com