

JNINE & CO

Jnine & Co champions menstrual wellness in the workplace and at home

We promote period positivity in the workplace by partnering with organisations to implement Menstrual Wellness policies and practices that complement Workplace Wellbeing, Diversity and Engagement initiatives.

Become an Employer of Choice, improve engagement and decrease absenteeism by looking after your 'people who period'

Workplace Period Toolkits

We have a solution for workplaces of every size and location, no matter how remote. Our Workplace Period Toolkits put you firmly in the drivers' seat in choosing the level of support you'd like to provide to your employees. Choose from Basic, Essential, Deluxe and Ultimate in the size that suits the number of 'people who period' in your workplace. We also offer a range of eco friendly sanitary disposal products that you can manage as part of your normal rubbish disposal. No need to rely on serviced sanitary bins and suffer the inconvenience of waiting for bin replacement when the unit is full NOW!

Researchers have found that 80% of people reported absenteeism and decreased productivity during their periods. Menstrual Wellness initiatives in your workplace may mean the difference to your 'people who period' in feeling supported to come to work while on their monthly or choosing to utilise their personal leave entitlements.
